GREG BADER

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT, ADMINISTRATION & EXPERIENCE

A member of the Orioles organization for 27 years, Greg Bader was named the club's Senior Vice President of Administration & Experience in October of 2019.

In his current role, Bader oversees all administrative and service functions of the club and all facets of the Camden Yards experience, including ballpark operations, customer service, broadcasting, and brand marketing. His efforts focus on initiatives that deliver the ultimate fan experience, including the groundbreaking Kids Cheer Free program, and additional unique entertainment opportunities through concerts and non-baseball events at Oriole Park.

Bader has spent his entire career with the Orioles organization, which began in 1994 as a public relations intern. He joined the club full-time in 1998 as Party Facilities Coordinator, and has also served as Spring Training Coordinator (1999-2002), Advertising and Affiliate Relations Manager (2003-06), Communications Director (2007-12), and Vice President of Communications & Marketing (2012-19).

Bader serves on the Board of Directors for Baltimore Convention and Tourism and is chair of the Marketing & Communications Committee for Visit Baltimore. A native of Baltimore, Bader graduated from the Gilman School and Trinity College (Hartford, Conn.) with a degree in political science. He resides in Locust Point with his husband, John Jackowski.

T.J. BRIGHTMAN

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT AND CHIEF REVENUE OFFICER

T.J. Brightman rejoined the club as Senior Vice President, Chief Revenue Officer in October of 2019. In this role, Brightman focuses on revenue generation through ticket and corporate sales for the Baltimore and Sarasota, Fla. operations, driving tourism, and creating local economic impact.

He originally joined the Orioles organization in 2003 and served as the Vice President of Corporate Sales & Sponsorship until 2005. He also acted as a special advisor to the partnership group from 2007 until he returned to the Orioles front office in 2019. Most recently, Brightman served as the president of A. Bright Idea Advertising and PR, the creative agency owned and operated by his wife, Anita.

A Baltimore native, Brightman attended the Baltimore Polytechnic Institute. He graduated from The Pennsylvania State University's College of Communications and now serves as a board member for the Penn State Bellisario College of Communications Alumni Society. Brightman and his wife, Anita, have two children. They reside in Maryland and California.

JENNIFER GRONDAHL

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT, COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT & COMMUNICATIONS

Jennifer Grondahl was named the club's Senior Vice President of Community Development & Communications in October of 2019. In this role, Grondahl focuses on building and maintaining relationships with partners, community leaders, civic organizations, fans, and the media to enhance the club's community outreach efforts. She oversees the organization's community and philanthropic initiatives, as well as the Orioles Charitable Foundation.

Grondahl joined the Orioles organization in February of 2018 as the Director of Corporate & Community Partnerships for Sarasota Operations. Prior to joining the Orioles, she served as Founder/President of Maestro Marketing & Events, where she provided strategic communication services for numerous corporations, nonprofits, and individuals. She was also the President of the YMCA Foundation of Sarasota, Inc. from 2013-16, and the Executive Director of the American Cancer Society from 2002-04.

Grondahl is a member of the Sarasota Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors, and the Tourism, Entertainment, and Culture Committee of the Greater Baltimore Committee. She was a founding member of Sisterhood for Good, the largest women's giving circle of the Manatee Community Foundation. She has also acted in leadership capacities for many charitable organizations in the Sarasota region, including Junior League of Manatee County, Rotary Club of Lakewood Ranch, and PACE Center for Girls.

Grondahl graduated from Bethany College (W.Va.) with a bachelor's degree in political science, and received her certificate in fundraising management from Indiana University's Lilly Family School of Philanthropy in 2016. She currently resides in Baltimore, Md. and Bradenton, Fla. with her husband, Paul.

MIKE HOPPES

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT, CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER

Mike Hoppes was named the club's Senior Vice President, Chief Financial Officer in November of 2020. In this role, Hoppes oversees the organization's finance and accounting functions, including the team's financial reporting with Major League Baseball and the Commissioner's Office.

A native of Germantown, Md., Hoppes has been with the Orioles for 34 years. He joined the team in 1986 as a staff accountant after spending two years as a staff auditor with Arthur Andersen LLP, where he helped set up internal controls for the Orioles Ticket Office as a consultant. In 2006, he was promoted to Director of Finance, a role he held until being named the Vice President of Finance in 2012.

Hoppes attended the University of Delaware, where he graduated cum laude in accounting. He received his CPA certification in 1987. Hoppes currently resides in Baldwin, Md., and has spent several years in leadership roles with the Carroll Manor Recreation Programs.

LISA TOLSON

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT, HUMAN RESOURCES

Now in her 36th year with the club, Lisa Tolson was named Senior Vice President of Human Resources in May of 2019. She began her career with the organization in group sales, before transitioning to finance and eventually finding a permanent home in human resources. She served as the Director of Human Resources for 18 years from 2000-18 and was promoted to Vice President in August of 2018.

In her role, Tolson oversees recruiting efforts and promoting the Orioles' culture and mission to deliver on key objectives, one of which includes fueling the local economy through employment opportunities.

Tolson received her Professional in Human Resources (PHR) certification through the Society for Human Resources Management (SHRM) in 2001 and her SHRM-CP in June 2015. She serves on the Board of Directors for the Brandon Tolson Foundation, which offers support to families after the sudden and tragic loss of a child.

Tolson reside in Phoenix, Md. with her husband Patrick. They have two children: Paige and Chad.

MIKE ELIAS

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT AND GENERAL MANAGER

Mike Elias was named the Orioles Executive Vice President and General Manager on November 16, 2018. He is entering his 15th season in Major League Baseball and third with the Orioles.

In his first two years as Executive Vice President and General Manager, Elias has worked quickly to revamp the Orioles' player development system, revitalize the club's international scouting presence, and expand the team's analytics department. He has led the club's efforts in back-to-back top selections in the First-Year Player Draft, drafting top-rated prospects Adley Rutschman with the No. 1 pick in 2019 and Heston Kjerstad with the No. 2 selection in 2020. Under his leadership, the club has rapidly ascended in FanGraphs', MLB.com's, and Baseball America's annual MLB organizational rankings, going from a bottom-third ranking before his tenure to now being rated as a top-third farm system.

Before joining the Orioles, Elias served as Assistant General Manager, Player Acquisition with the Houston Astros. Throughout his seven years in Houston, he helped to shape an Astros roster that produced back-to-back 100-win seasons, a World Series Championship, two American League Championship Series appearances, and two division titles. He was an integral part of building one of baseball's top-ranked farm systems that routinely served to furnish talent for the Major League roster.

Elias joined the Astros in 2012 as a special assistant to the General Manager and was a key contributor to Houston's top-ranked First-Year Player Draft by Baseball America. That year, he was named the club's Director of Amateur Scouting, a role in which he served as one of the organization's top talent evaluators. In 2016, he was promoted to Assistant General Manager, Scouting and Player Development, overseeing player development, minor league operations, and the draft. Additionally, he led international scouting efforts for the club beginning in August of 2017.

Prior to joining the Astros, Elias spent five seasons as a scout with the St. Louis Cardinals, including over a year as the club's Manager of Amateur Scouting. During his time with the Cardinals, the club produced a consistently top-ranked farm system and won the 2011 World Series.

Elias, 38, is a native of Fairfax County, Va., where he attended Thomas Jefferson High School for Science and Technology. A 2006 graduate of Yale University (Conn.), he was a four-time letter winner as a left-handed pitcher for the Bulldogs baseball team. He and his wife, Alexandra, reside in Baltimore with their daughter, Evelyn.

SIG MEJDAL

VICE PRESIDENT AND ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER, ANALYTICS

Sig Mejdal was named the Orioles Vice President and Assistant General Manager, Analytics on November 21, 2018. In his role, Mejdal oversees all aspects of the club's growing analytics efforts while assisting and advising Executive Vice President and General Manager Mike Elias in all matters of Baseball Operations decisions. Mejdal is entering his 17th season in Major League Baseball and third with the Orioles.

Before joining the Orioles, Mejdal served as Special Assistant to the General Manager, Process Improvement with the Houston Astros. In this role, Mejdal supported the development, implementation, and monitoring of improvement initiatives throughout the organization. Mejdal joined the Astros in 2012 and organized the team's analytics department from its inception. He spent his seven years in Houston contributing to a variety of efforts across baseball operations, ranging from data and player analysis, to the amateur draft, to the Major League team. He was a key asset in the process that helped the Astros improve their season record by more than 50 wins between 2013 and 2017, while also drafting more Major League players than any other team during his tenure. During his time, the Astros won a World Series Championship, made two American League Championship Series appearances, and won two division titles.

Prior to joining the Astros, Mejdal worked for the St. Louis Cardinals for seven seasons, spending his final season as the team's Director, Amateur Draft Analysis. During his time with the Cardinals, he was an integral part of the draft decision-making processes that led to the selection of more Major League players than any other organization in that time frame. His professional baseball career began as a Quantitative Analyst for the Cardinals in 2005.

Mejdal, a California native, earned bachelor's degrees in mechanical engineering and aeronautical engineering from the University of California, Davis, as well as master's degrees in operations research and cognitive psychology from San Jose State University (Calif.) Prior to beginning his baseball career, he worked for NASA as a biomathematician. He and his wife, Arati, reside in Baltimore.

KOBY PEREZ

SENIOR DIRECTOR, INTERNATIONAL SCOUTING

Koby Perez enters his third season as the club's Senior Director of International Scouting. He oversees all aspects of the Orioles' international scouting operations and management of the club's bonus pool.

He joined the organization in January of 2019 following five seasons in the Cleveland Indians organization, first as an International Crosschecker for two years and later as their Director of Latin American Scouting. Perez has worked in professional baseball since 2006, working for the St. Louis Cardinals (2006-08), Philadelphia Phillies (2009-13), and Cleveland Indians (2014-18).

Born in Tamayo, Dominican Republic, Perez grew up in North Bergen, N.J. He played for two seasons in the Red Sox organization from 2002-03 and in the Independent Atlantic League from 2003-05.

Perez received his bachelor's degree in Recreation and Sports Management from Florida International University. He currently resides in Elkridge, Md., with his wife, Johanna, and their children: Pamela and Koby (KJ).

MATT BLOOD

DIRECTOR, PLAYER DEVELOPMENT

Matt Blood joined the Orioles organization as the Director of Player Development in September of 2019. His duties include staff recruitment and development as well as the implementation of player development strategies and programs throughout the entire minor league system.

Blood has nine years of experience at the Major League level and has spent more than a decade in professional and amateur baseball. He most recently served as the Director of Player Development for the Texas Rangers for the 2019 season. He also worked for the St. Louis Cardinals as an area scout from 2009-15 and served as the Team Director for USA Baseball's 18U National Team from 2016-18.

Blood graduated from the University of North Carolina in 2007 with a degree in economics. He resides in Baltimore with his wife, Allison, and their two children: Henry and Ben.

KEVIN BUCK

DIRECTOR, BASEBALL ADMINISTRATION

Kevin Buck was promoted to Director of Baseball Administration at the conclusion of the 2019 season. In this role, Buck oversees Major League operations, transactions, budgets, contracts, and rules compliance.

Buck began his Orioles career in 2003 as a part-time employee in the sales and fan services department. He joined the club full-time in 2005 as a New Sales Representative and worked with Season Plan Members and group events for two years before taking a position as a Market Research Manager in 2007.

Buck began handling team travel arrangements and accommodations in 2009, when he was named Coordinator of Team Travel to assist longtime Orioles Traveling Secretary Phil Itzoe. In 2015, he was promoted to Director of Team Travel and oversaw all team travel, as well as the home and visiting clubhouses.

A native of Cockeysville, Md., Buck has spent the majority of his life in the Baltimore area. A lifetime Orioles fan, he grew up playing baseball in Cockeysville and attended Dulaney High School before graduating in 1999 and enrolling at the University of Richmond (Va.). He graduated with a degree in marketing and communications in 2003, and immediately began working for the Orioles. Buck, and his wife, Cassandra, reside in Baltimore.

KENT QUALLS

DIRECTOR, MINOR LEAGUE OPERATIONS

Kent Qualls enters his ninth year as the Director of Minor League Operations for the Orioles. He oversees the administration of the Orioles Player Development department, minor league affiliate relationships, the Dominican Academy, and Winter Ball assignments. His responsibilities also include handling Major League and Minor League contracts and negotiations, player transactions, salary arbitrations, and rules compliance.

Qualls has more than 20 years of baseball operations experience at the Major League level. He spent eight years with the Boston Red Sox from 1995-2002, working as Director of Player Development and Director of Baseball Operations. He also spent eight seasons with the Montreal Expos from 1987-94, rising to Director of Minor League Operations for the organizations. Additionally, Qualls served for 10 years as the Director of the Dan Duquette Sports Academy in Hinsdale, Mass.

A graduate of the University of Kentucky, Qualls and his wife, Irene, have two children: Kyle and Chloe. They reside in Woodbine, Md.

EVE ROSENBAUM

DIRECTOR, BASEBALL DEVELOPMENT

Eve Rosenbaum joined the Orioles organization in November of 2019 as the club's Director of Baseball Development. She is responsible for developing and implementing evaluation methods and digital tools for use across all facets of baseball operations, serving as a conduit between the organization's scouting, player development, and research and development departments. She also plays a key role in player acquisition decisions and evaluates players in the international, amateur, and professional markets.

Prior to joining the Orioles, Rosenbaum spent five seasons in the Houston Astros organization, most recently serving as the club's Manager of International Scouting. She also worked for the National Football League from 2012-15 as a Junior Rotational Program Member and as Manager of Business Intelligence and Optimization.

Rosenbaum is a native of Bethesda, Md. and attended Harvard University (Mass). She earned a bachelor's degree in psychology with a minor in philosophy, and was a catcher on the Crimson varsity softball team. She currently resides in Baltimore.

MIKE SNYDER

DIRECTOR, PRO SCOUTING

Mike Snyder enters his 13th year with the Orioles and his second as Director of Professional Scouting. In this role, he oversees the club's pro scouting and player analysis across the majors, minor league baseball, and Asian professional leagues. Additional responsibilities include assisting with contract negotiations, 40-man roster construction and player transactions, and entry-level hiring.

Snyder previously served as the club's Director of Pacific Rim Operations & Baseball Development (2015-19), Assistant Director of Player Personnel (2013-14), Assistant Director of Scouting and Player Development (2012), Baseball Operations Assistant and International Scout (2010-11), and Baseball Operations Intern (2009).

Snyder graduated with honors from Princeton University (NJ) in 2008 with a degree in economics, and he received his master's degree in applied and computational mathematics from Johns Hopkins University in 2019.

A native of Milton, Mass., Snyder and his wife, Lindsay, reside in Frederick, Md. with their two children, Ellie and Jonah.

BRAD CIOLEK

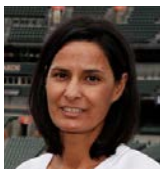

SUPERVISOR, DOMESTIC SCOUTING OPERATIONS

Brad Ciolek enters his 10th season with the Orioles and his third season as Supervisor, Domestic Scouting Operations. He began his Orioles career in 2011 as a player development intern in Sarasota, Fla. before serving as Scouting Administrator (2013-16) and Assistant Director of Scouting (2017-19).

In his current role, Ciolek oversees all facets pertaining to the amateur draft, including scouting logistics and administration. He travels across the United States, Canada, and Puerto Rico to evaluate and recommend players for the First-Year Player Draft. Ciolek also supervises a team of scouting analysts, and manages the club's signing bonus pool for the MLB Draft.

Prior to joining the Orioles, Ciolek spent four seasons with the New York Mets (2007-10) and one year as an analyst for Bloomberg Sports (2012).

Ciolek graduated from Seton Hall University (NJ) in 2009 with a degree in Business Administration and received his master's in Computer Information Systems from Colorado State University in 2017. He resides in Cockeysville, Md. with his wife, Danielle, and their son, James.

J. MARIA ARELLANO SENIOR MANAGER, MINOR LEAGUE & INTERNATIONAL ADMINISTRATION

J. Maria Arellano enters her 16th season with the Orioles. She is responsible for handling minor league and international scouting operations and administration, including contracts, rules compliance, budgeting, travel, payroll, and insurance. She also heads the club's immigration program to ensure all major and minor league players and staff have authorization to enter and work in the United States and Canada.

Arellano joined the Orioles in 2006 as an administration assistant to player development. Throughout her tenure, she has held the roles of Coordinator of Minor League Administration and Manager of Minor League and International Administration, before being promoted to her current role in November of 2019. Prior to joining the Orioles, Arellano spent five seasons with the Los Angeles Angeles and two seasons with the Montreal Expos.

Arellano attended the University of New Mexico for both undergrad and graduate school. She graduated Cum Laude with a Bachelor of Business Administration from the Anderson School of Management, and later received her Master of Science with a concentration in Sports Administration.

Arellano was born in Torreon, Coahuila, Mexico and immigrated to the United States as a child, growing up in Hobbs, New Mexico. She currently resides in Baltimore.

JEFF GILLIS

MANAGER, TEAM TRAVEL

Jeff Gillis enters his second season as the club's Manager, Team Travel after being hired in December of 2019. In this role, he handles all aspects of the Major League day-to-day travel needs.

A native of Aurora, Colo., Gillis graduated from the Metropolitan State University of Denver, where he played on the men's soccer team and earned his degree in Sport Business Management. He continued his education at the University of Alabama, where he received a master's degree in Sport Business Management. Gillis currently resides in Baltimore, Md.

DI ZOU

MANAGER, BASEBALL SYSTEMS

Di Zou enters his fifth season with the Orioles, and his second as Manager, Baseball Systems. In his current role, he oversees development of internal baseball operations information systems and contributes to various initiatives related to baseball technology and analytics.

Zou was hired in 2017 as a Developer of Baseball Systems, a role he held for three years. Prior to joining the Orioles, he worked as a software engineer at various tech companies, including the Army Research Lab, BoxTone, Bridgestone, and HubSpot, where he focused on application development and data engineering.

Zou is a graduate of the University of Maryland with a degree in mathematics. He and his wife, Tina Zhang, reside in Ellicott City, Md. with their daughter, Isabelle.

ORIOLES IN THE COMMUNITY

The Baltimore Orioles have prioritized community involvement through a variety of programs and initiatives throughout Birdland for more than 60 years. Guided by our community pillars of strengthening our communities and empowering our youth, the Orioles have supported many civic and charitable organizations in the Mid-Atlantic region, Sarasota, Fla., and abroad. Since the ownership group led by Peter Angelos purchased the team, the Orioles and the Orioles Charitable Foundation have donated more than $20 million to support various organizations in the Orioles community.

BRIAN EBEL MBA, LAT, ATC

HEAD ATHLETIC TRAINER

Ebel enters his fourth season as the Orioles Head Athletic Trainer and his 37th year with the Orioles organization overall. Ebel is just the fourth Head Athletic Trainer in Orioles history since the franchise moved to Baltimore in 1954.

Ebel began his career in 1985 at the age of 19 when he served as the Head Athletic Trainer for the Rookie League Bluefield Orioles during summer breaks from college. He was then promoted to Class-A Erie (1988), and Double-A Hagerstown (1989-91), Orioles Minor League Medical Coordinator (1992-96), and Orioles Assistant Major League Athletic Trainer (1996-2017) before being named Orioles Head

Athletic Trainer in 2018.

Ebel is a graduate of Eastern Kentucky University and holds an MBA from Johns Hopkins University. He is an active member of the Professional Baseball Athletic Trainers Society (PBATS) and served on their Executive Board as the American League Assistant Athletic Trainer Representative from 1999-2005. He serves on Major League Baseball's steering committee for Electronic Medical Records, MLB's Concussion committee, and was a member of MLB's Medical Advisory Board (2003-17).

Ebel received his 20-year service award as a Major League Athletic Trainer by PBATS in 2016. Following the 2011 season, PBATS named Ebel and longtime Orioles Athletic Trainer Richie Bancells the Major League Baseball Athletic Training Staff of the Year. In 2007, he was the Athletic Trainer for the American League All-Star team in San Francisco. He was also selected as the Athletic Trainer for the Major League Baseball All-Star Tour of Taiwan following the 2011 season. Ebel was the recipient of PBATS President's Service Award in 2012 for his work on MLB's standardized Electronic Medical Records (EMR).

Ebel is certified by the National Athletic Trainers Association and is a licensed athletic trainer in Maryland and Florida. He is certified in Active Release Techniques (A.R.T.) and Functional Movement Systems (FMS). He has authored or co-authored research papers on shoulder and elbow injuries, as well as catcher's injuries. In May of 2012, he was awarded a United States patent for an orthopedic device for the foot to aid in the treatment of Plantar Fasciitis and heel pain.

Ebel grew up in Versailles, Ind., and has two sons: Brady and Brett. He lives in Baltimore.

MARK SHIRES ATC

ASSISTANT ATHLETIC TRAINER

Shires begins his fourth season as an Assistant Athletic Trainer and his 23rd year as an Athletic Trainer in the Orioles organization. He was named to the post in January of 2018 following 11 years as the Head Athletic Trainer for Triple-A Norfolk. While with the Tides, he was selected to represent the International League in the 2013 Triple-A All-Star Game and was twice named International League Athletic Trainer of the Year (2009 & 2011).

Prior to his tenure with Norfolk, Shires made stops at four levels of the Orioles farm system, including three years at Bowie (2004-06) and at Frederick (2001-03), one year at Delmarva (2000), and one season in the Gulf Coast League (1999). He also worked as an intern for Bowie in 1996-97 before graduating from West Chester University (PA) in 1998. He later completed his master's degree from California University of Pennsylvania in 2004.

He and his wife, Alison Gardiner, married in 2006 in a ceremony presided over by Scott McGregor. They reside in West Chester, Pa. with their son, Arthur John "AJ".

PATRICK WESLEY ATC

ASSISTANT ATHLETIC TRAINER

Wesley enters his fourth season as an Assistant Athletic Trainer and his 18th season as an Athletic Trainer in the Orioles organization. He was named an Assistant Athletic Trainer in January of 2018 after spending the previous three seasons with Bowie.

Wesley joined the Orioles as an Athletic Training Intern at the minor league complex in Sarasota in 2003, and later served as an Athletic Training Intern at Morgan State University (MD) following the conclusion of the minor league season. He spent the 2004 season with Bluefield before joining Aberdeen for two years in 2005. He has also worked for Delmarva (2007-08), where he was named South Atlantic League Trainer of the year both seasons, as well as the Arizona Fall League (2009) and Frederick (2009-14). Wesley also worked Major League Spring Training from 2011-15.

The McKendree University (IL) graduate has a Bachelor of Science degree in Athletic Training and is certified by the National Athletic Trainers Association. He resides in Frederick, Md with his wife Jessica and three children Caleb (12), Chase (12), and Chloe (7).

JOSEPH HOGARTY

STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING COACH

Hogarty enters his 12th season as the Major League Strength and Conditioning Coach and his 18th in the Orioles organization. Prior to joining the Major League staff, he spent the previous two seasons (2008-09) as the Orioles Minor League Strength and Conditioning Coordinator and four years (2004-07) as the strength and conditioning coach with the Orioles Triple-A affiliate. He began his professional career in 2003 as a strength and conditioning intern for the Triple-A Pawtucket Red Sox.

Hogarty is a 2001 graduate of Bridgewater State University (MA) with a degree in physical education (athletic training). In addition to his baseball duties, Hogarty has spent time in sports medicine and strength and conditioning roles at Northeastern University (MA) and at the United States Olympic Training Center in Lake Placid, N.Y. His uncle, William Hogarty, was drafted by the Washington Senators (1955).

RYOSUKE NAITO

STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING COACH

Naito begins his eighth season as the Strength and Conditioning Coach with the Major League club and his 11th year in the Orioles organization. He was promoted to the Major League staff in 2014 following three years as the Strength and Conditioning Coach for Triple-A Norfolk.

Prior to joining the Orioles, he served as an Intern Performance Coach with Athletes' Performance (EXOS) in Phoenix, Ariz. (2010) and as an Intern Assistant Strength & Conditioning Coach at Springfield College (MA) in 2009-10, where he completed his Masters of Education in Exercise Science and Sports Studies. Naito has previously worked with Oakland's Double-A Midland as the Strength and Conditioning Coach (2009); Oregon State University as the Intern Assistant Athletic Coach (2007-09); and San Francisco's Short-Season A Salem-Keizer as the Intern Strength and Conditioning Coach (2008).

Naito is a native of Kyoto, Japan and graduated from Mineyama High School. He attended Linn-Benton Community College (OR) before completing his Bachelor of Science in Exercise and Sports Science from Oregon State University. He is certified by the National Strength & Conditioning Association. He and his wife, Yuko, were married in Hawaii in October 2019.

NICOLE SHERRY

DIRECTOR OF FIELD OPERATIONS

Sherry begins her first season as the Orioles Director of Field Operations after spending the previous 14 seasons as the Orioles Head Groundskeeper. It is her 18th season with the Orioles organization overall. From 2001-03, she served as the Orioles Assistant Head Groundskeeper before spending three seasons (2004-06) with the Double-A Trenton Thunder (New York Yankees).

She returned to the Orioles organization in November of 2006, becoming just the second woman ever to serve as the head groundskeeper with a Major League team. Sherry and Heather Nabozny, who has been with the Detroit Tigers since 1999, are the only female head groundskeepers in Major League Baseball. According to the Sports Turf Managers Association (STMA), there have been approximately 10 women who have held the position of head groundskeeper in the history of professional baseball.

Sherry was the first female head groundskeeper in Eastern League history when she was named to that post for the Trenton Thunder in February of 2004, and twice was runner-up for the Eastern League's top groundskeeping award. In 2006, the Thunder honored her with a bobblehead, depicting her riding a tractor.

In February of 2016, Sherry was named the recipient of the Mary Pickersgill Award for Women's Leadership in Business by the Star-Spangled Banner Flag House. Established in 2012, the award honors a woman who demonstrates leadership in her community, exemplifies innovation in her chosen field, and has the power to inspire others. She was also named the 2019 recipient of the prestigious Dick Ericson Founders' Award, which is awarded annually to a STMA member who effectively manages sports fields and their facility, exhibits the qualities of a true team leader, and who positively impacts the sports turf industry. Sherry, along with MLB and Discovery Education, have worked with local schools to introduce students to a variety of intriguing science and STEM concepts related to her job as Head Groundskeeper.

A native of New Castle, Del., Sherry graduated from the University of Delaware with a degree in agriculture. She worked for several golf courses in Delaware and with the University of Delaware's Research and Education Center, testing new herbicides, prior to joining the Orioles in 2001 as the Assistant Head Groundskeeper. Sherry resides in Eldersburg, Md. with her son, Tyson.

CHRIS GUTH

HOME CLUBHOUSE/EQUIPMENT MANAGER

Guth enters his ninth year with the Orioles and his 34th year in professional baseball, having also worked for the New York Yankees, Arizona Diamondbacks, and Texas Rangers organizations.

Prior to joining the Orioles, Guth served as the Manager of Minor League Complex Operations for the Texas Rangers organization from 2002-12, where he oversaw daily operations of the complex in Surprise, Ariz.

After nine years as the Yankees Minor League Equipment Manager from 1987-95, Guth joined the expansion Arizona Diamondbacks as their Minor League Equipment Manager during the 1996-97 seasons when they had only minor league teams prior to the expansion draft. When the Diamondbacks joined the National League in 1998, Guth was named their equipment manager, a position he held for three seasons. A Miami native, and graduate of Palmetto (FL) High School, Guth and his wife, Lesa, have two sons: Jason and Ryan.

JIM TYLER

UMPIRES' ATTENDANT

Jim Tyler begins his 60th year working for the Orioles and his ninth season as the umpires' attendant. Tyler ran the home clubhouse from 1979 to 2012 after serving seven years as the visiting clubhouse manager. He began working in the Orioles clubhouse in 1962.

Born and raised in Baltimore, he is a graduate of Baltimore City College High School, located across the street from Memorial Stadium, where the Orioles played for 39 years. Tyler is one of 11 children, including a twin brother, Phil, who also worked for the Orioles in the past. Tyler has two children: Lauren and Joshua, and three grandchildren: Luke, Tessa, and Jack.

FRED TYLER

VISITING CLUBHOUSE MANAGER

Fred Tyler enters his 37th season as the Visiting Clubhouse Manager. He began working around the clubhouse as a teenager, assisting his brother, Jim. In addition to assisting with the equipment and clubhouse needs during Spring Training, Tyler also accompanies the Orioles on some road trips during the season.

Tyler played baseball at Bel Air (MD) High School, Harford Community College, and Towson University. As a senior at Bel Air High, Tyler was named the All-Harford County shortstop, while the All-Harford County pitcher that year was an Aberdeen High School right-handed pitcher named Cal Ripken, Jr. Tyler lives in Arnold, Md. with Debbie Duffy. They have a son, Sean Duffy Tyler.

BEN CARHART

BULLPEN CATCHER

Carhart enters his second season as the Orioles Bullpen Catcher. Prior to joining the Orioles, he spent the 2018 and 2019 seasons as an Assistant Coach with the Cubs Double-A affiliate Tennessee. He started his post-playing career in 2017 as the Chicago Cubs Rehab Coach.

Carhart was selected in the 35th round of the 2012 First-Year Player Draft by the Chicago Cubs out of Stetson University (FL)...A career .270 hitter in the minors, he spent five seasons in the Chicago Cubs minor leagues as a player. Appeared in 372 career games for Cub minor league affiliates, reaching Triple-A in 2016.

JOEL POLANCO

BULLPEN CATCHER

Polanco enters his third season as the Orioles Bullpen Catcher.

Polanco was signed by the Orioles as an undrafted free agent on February 14, 2006...He appeared in 185 career minor league games for the Orioles, reaching Double-A Bowie in 2011...He was a career .234 hitter.

DID YOU KNOW?

- O's infielder Wayne Gross became the first player in Major League history to hit at least 10 homers and drive in fewer than 20 runs in a season in 1985. He hit 11 HR and drove in 18 runs. O's catcher Chris Hoiles holds the record for fewest RBI (40) for a player with 20 home runs in a season, when he did it in 1992.
- The last time a team had a right-handed and left-handed pitcher each win 20 games in a season in the American League was 1980, when RHP Steve Stone (25) and LHP Scott McGregor (20) did it for the Orioles.
- Orioles Hall of Fame pitcher Jim Palmer is the only pitcher ever to win a World Series game in three different decades.

ORIOLE ADVOCATES

The Oriole Advocates, Inc. is a unique nonprofit organization, dedicated to promoting and stimulating interest in the game of baseball at both the amateur and professional levels. Founded in July of 1960, the Advocates are in their 59th year of "Promoting and Stimulating Interest in Baseball." Membership comprises some 75 men and women, drawn from a broad cross-section of the Baltimore area.

Through the years, the Advocates have made substantial financial donations to worthy causes, primarily to baseball-oriented youth organizations; have played a key role in the restoration of Babe Ruth's birthplace at 216 Emory Street and its conversion into the Babe Ruth/Orioles Museum; and established the Orioles Hall of Fame in 1977.

The organization has also served as an essential right arm to the Orioles Communications and Community Development Departments. In that connection, the Advocates initiated the popular Junior Orioles program (now the Kids Cheer Free Plus) back in 1963 and administered it for 25 years. Membership rose from 75 youngsters the first year to a record 20,000 in 1977. The Oriole Advocates don't get paid for anything they do, instead serving as volunteers that constantly demonstrate the importance of competence and dedication whenever there is a job to be done.

NOW PITCHING...

The Orioles have used non-pitchers on the mound on 16 occasions (15 games) including two on June 26, 1978 during a 22-10 loss at Toronto. Stevie Wilkerson's save at Los Angeles-AL on July 25, 2019, was the first save by a position player in Major League history, since the save became an official stat in 1969. Chris Davis' appearance at Boston on May 6, 2012, was the first pitching victory recorded by an AL position player since Rocky Colavito did it in 1968. The Orioles have lost 13 of the 15 games in which a position player has pitched.

MAKING THE LAST ONE COUNT

Ted Williams wasn't the only Major Leaguer to hit a home run in his last Major League at-bat when he went deep off the Orioles' Jack Fisher on September 28, 1960, at Fenway Park. Two former Orioles also accomplished this feat. On September 30, 1956, Joe Frazier (who later managed the New York Mets) homered at Washington off Senators pitcher Ted Abernathy in his final big league plate appearance. On August 2, 1994, Jeff Tackett went deep at Minnesota off Twins hurler Mike Trombley in his last at-bat.

DID YOU KNOW?

- Former Orioles pitcher Scott McGregor is one of 32 first-round draft picks ever to win 20 games in a season. A first-round pick of the Yankees in 1972 (No. 12 overall), he won 20 games for the Orioles in 1980. In addition to McGregor, first round picks who were 20-game winners at least once in their careers include Josh Beckett, Kevin Brown, Chris Carpenter, Roger Clemens, Joe Coleman, R.A. Dickey, Rich Dotson, Dwight Gooden, Gio Gonzalez, Bill Gullickson, Roy Halladay, Rick Helling, Ian Kennedy, Clayton Kershaw, Jack McDowell, Matt Morris, Mark Mulder, Mike Mussina, Mike Norris, Rick Porcello, David Price, J.R. Richard, C.C. Sabathia, Max Scherzer, Rick Sutcliffe, Bill Swift, Justin Verlander, Adam Wainwright, Jered Weaver, Bob Welch, and Barry Zito.
- Former Orioles pitcher Milt Pappas is one of 13 pitchers in Major League history to hit a solo home run and win a game 1-0. He did it April 18, 1962, homering in the fifth inning to beat the Yankees' Bill Stafford at Memorial Stadium in Baltimore.
- Orioles RHP Moe Drabowsky struck out 11 Dodgers in relief in Game 1 of the 1966 World Series, the only reliever to fan 11 batters in a World Series game. Harvey Haddix (June 15, 1964) and Dave Vineyard (September 7, 1964) share the Orioles' regular season record for strikeouts by a reliever, also with 11.
- Al Bumbry is one of 14 American League players to hit three triples in one game. He did so on September 22, 1973, at Milwaukee.
- Mike Cuellar and Dave McNally won at least 20 games each for the Orioles from 1969 through 1971, the only teammates to do that three straight seasons since 1931.

BIRDS' BIGGEST DEAL

In November-December, 1954, the Orioles and New York Yankees engineered a 17-player deal, one of the biggest in baseball history. General Manager Paul Richards sent the following players to New York: pitchers Mike Blyzka, Don Larsen and Bob Turley; catcher Darrell Johnson, first baseman Dick Kryhoski, shortstop Billy Hunter and outfielders Ted del Guercio and Jim Fridley. The Orioles acquired pitchers Harry Byrd, Jim McDonald and Bill Miller; catchers Hal Smith and Gus Triandos; second baseman Don Leppert, third baseman Kal Segrist, shortstop Willie Miranda and outfielder Gene Woodling.

THE BABE RUTH BIRTHPLACE & MUSEUM

On February 6, 1895, George Herman "Babe" Ruth was born at 216 Emory Street in a Baltimore rowhouse located "just a long fly ball" from Oriole Park at Camden Yards. The Birthplace is one of the top baseball museums in the country, featuring an extensive collection of Ruthian artifacts and mementos, as well as serving as the official museum of the Baltimore Orioles and the archives of the Baltimore Colts and Johnny Unitas.

The Museum showcases different aspects of baseball in exhibits throughout the year. The Museum also hosts appearances by past, present and future Orioles and other Major League stars, as well as nationally known authors of sports publications for lectures and book signings.

For Museum information, call 410-727-1539 or visit baberruthmuseum.com.

2020 IN REVIEW

BALTIMORE ORIOLES

REELIN' IN THE YEARS: The Orioles concluded the 2020 campaign with a 25-35 (.417) record in the 60-game shortened season... Their .417 winning percentage marked an 84-point increase over their 2019 record of 54-108 (.333)...According to teamrankings.com the O's 2020 strength of schedule ranked as the second-toughest in the AL and fifth-toughest in the majors.

WELCOME TO THE SHOW: Five O's players made their Major League debut in 2020...LHP Keegan Akin, INF Ramón Urías, INF/OF Ryan Mountcastle, RHP Dean Kremer, and LHP Bruce Zimmermann each appeared in their first Major League games during the season...All five players will retain their rookie status for the 2021 season.

I SAN-TAN-DARE YOU: OF Anthony Santander was voted the winner of the 2020 Louis M. Hatter Most Valuable Oriole Award by local media who cover the team on a regular basis.

Santander finished the season hitting .261/.315/.575 (40-for-153) with 13 doubles, one triple, 11 home runs, 24 runs scored, 32 RBI, and 10 walks.

His season was cut short after being placed on the IL with a strained right oblique on September 5...At the time of his injury, Santander was leading the AL in extra-base hits (25), was tied for second in doubles (13), third in total bases (88), tied for third in RBI (32), sixth in slugging percentage (.575), and tied for sixth in home runs (11).

MULTI-PURPOSE: The Orioles had nine different players who recorded at least 10 multi-hit games in 2020, the most in the majors...The San Francisco Giants had the second-most with eight...In the AL, the second-closest teams, Boston, Chicago, Houston, Minnesota, and Toronto, each had six...INF Hanser Alberto led the way for the Orioles with 18 multi-hit games, tied for the eighth-most in the AL and tied for 16th in the majors.

WAKE ME UP WHEN SEPTEMBER ENDS: During the month of September, O's hitters ranked sixth in the AL in OPS (.744), ranked fourth in batting average (.259), and ranked eighth in the AL in home runs (32).

OF DJ Stewart's seven home runs tied for seventh in the AL in September and INF/OF Ryan Mountcastle tied for 10th in the AL with 19 RBI, while INF Ryo Ruiz tied for 15th in the AL with 16 RBI during the month.

OF Austin Hays hit .377/.404/.585 (20-for-53) with three home runs and 12 runs scored after coming off the Injured List on September 14 (non-displaced rib fracture)...His 20 hits tied for fourth in the majors and his 12 runs tied for fourth during this stretch.

The O's 4.39 ERA (105 ER/215.1 IP) during September ranked seventh-best in the AL...Orioles pitchers allowed 105 earned runs during the month to rank seventh-fewest in the AL.

THE MIGHTY PEN: The Orioles bullpen posted a combined 3.90 ERA (109 ER/251.2 IP) during the 2020 season...Their ERA ranked as the ninth-best in the majors and seventh-best in the AL...LHP Tanner Scott led the way with a team-high 25 appearances...RHP César Valdez posted a bullpen-best 1.31 ERA (min. nine appearances)...RHP Travis Lakins, Sr. tossed a bullpen-high 25.2 innings in 22 games.

ROAD WARRIORS: At 12-15 (.444), the O's owned the seventh-best road record in the AL and their road record ranked 16th-best in the majors...O's hitters ranked first in the AL and third in the majors with a .273 team batting average on the road...The Orioles led the AL and ranked sixth in the majors with a .767 team OPS on the road...O's pitchers owned a 4.68 ERA (120 ER/230.2 IP) in 27 games on the road this season to rank seventh in the AL and 15th in the majors.

PILING UP THE K'S: From July 29 to August 2, Orioles pitchers struck out at least 10 batters in five consecutive games, setting a new club record...The previous record of four-straight had been done three times...The O's recorded 10-or-more strikeouts in 19 of their 60 games during the season, going 11-8 in these games.

WHAT A DIFFERENCE A DAY MAKES: The Orioles owned a 10-6 (.625) record in 16 day games in 2020...Their day game record ranked third-best in the AL and fifth in the majors...In 44 night games during the 2020 season, the O's owned a 15-29 (.341) mark.

SMALL BALL FOR ALL: The O's led the majors with 16 bunt hits in 2020...OF Cedric Mullins led the majors with nine bunt hits, while INF Hanser Alberto tied for fourth in the majors with five.

RETURN OF CÉSAR: RHP César Valdez made nine appearances for the Orioles, all in relief, and posted a 1-1 record with three saves and a 1.26 ERA (2 ER/14.1 IP)...Valdez had his contract selected by the Orioles on August 27 and his first appearance on August 29 at TOR was his first Major League game since August 4, 2017...His save on September 4 vs. NYY (2.0 IP, H, BB, 3 K) was the first of his career...In eight of his nine appearances he did not allow an earned run.

SEVENTH HEAVEN: Orioles pitchers allowed just 11 runs in the seventh inning in 2020 for a 1.61 ERA (10 ER/56.0 IP)...It marked the fewest runs allowed in the seventh inning in the majors, with the second-closest teams (Los Angeles-NL and New York-NL) tied for 18 runs each.

LHP Tanner Scott made nine appearances in the seventh inning (6.1 IP) without allowing a run, while LHP Paul Fry also made nine appearances in the seventh inning (6.2 IP) without allowing a run.

On the offensive side, the Orioles scored 32 runs in the seventh inning, seventh-most in the AL and 13th-most in the majors.

LEFT IS RIGHT: Since the start of the 2019 season, INF Hanser Alberto leads the majors with 106 hits off of left-handed pitching... In that time, he leads the majors with a .394 (106-for-269) average against lefties...In 2020, Alberto ranked 17th in the AL among qualifying hitters with a .283 (62-for-219) average against all pitchers.

In 2020, Alberto tied for fourth in the AL and tied for sixth in the majors with a .375 (-18-for-48) batting average against left-handed pitchers.

Alberto's 18 hits off of left-handers tied for 12th-most in the AL.

Alberto ranked 16th in the AL with a .917 OPS off lefties in 2020 and his .425 BABIP (batting average on balls in play) ranked ninth in the majors off of left-handers.

WALK THIS WAY: Orioles pitchers did not issue a walk in back-to-back games on July 26 and 29...RHP Alex Cobb, LHP Paul Fry, RHP Miguel Castro, LHP Richard Bleier, and RHP Mychal Givens combined for 9.0 innings without issuing a free pass on July 26 at BOS...LHP Wade LeBlanc, RHP Miguel Castro, LHP Tanner Scott, and RHP Cole Sulser tossed 9.0 walk-free innings on July 29 vs. NYY...It was the first time O's pitchers did not issue a walk in consecutive games since May 16-17, 2015 vs. LAA...The O's also combined to strikeout 11 Red Sox batters on July 26...It was the first time since April 14, 2017 at TOR in which Orioles pitchers struck out at least 11 batters while not issuing a walk...Since 2010, O's pitchers have had only 11 such games with at least 11 strikeouts and no walks.

IF YOU AIN'T FIRST, YOU'RE LAST: On the first pitch of a plate appearance, the Orioles ranked first in the majors in batting average (.409), and ranked second in the AL and fifth in the majors in OPS (1.089), while ranking tied for seventh in the majors in extra-base hits (33)...The Orioles ranked second in the AL and fourth in the majors in doubles (20), and tied for the AL lead in hits (90) and tied for fifth in the majors as a team on the first pitch.

JOHN MEANS BUSINESS: LHP John Means struck out a career-high 12 batters in his start on September 20 vs. TB...He was the only Orioles pitcher to record double digit strikeouts during the 2020 season...Between the first and third innings, Means struck out seven-straight Rays batters (two in the first inning, three in the second inning, two in the third inning) to match the Orioles club record for consecutive strikeouts set by RHP Sammy Stewart in his Major League debut on September 1, 1978 vs. Chicago-AL.

TRADE WINDS: The Orioles made five separate trades during the 2020 season...On July 29, RHP Hector Velázquez was traded to the Houston Astros for a PTBNL (RHP Miguel Padilla)...On August 1, LHP Richard Bleier was sent to the Miami Marlins for a PTBNL (SS Isaac De León)...On August 29, LHP Tommy Milone was dealt to the Atlanta Braves for two PTBNL (INF AJ Graffanino and INF Greg Cullen)...On August 30, RHP Mychal Givens was sent to the Colorado Rockies for INF Tyler Nevin, INF Terrin Vavra, and a PTBNL (OF Mishaël Deson)...On August 31, RHP Miguel Castro was traded to the New York Mets for LHP Kevin Smith and a PTBNL (SS Victor González).

INTERLEAGUE INFO: The Orioles played 20 Interleague games during the 2020 season, all coming against the NL East division... The O's went 11-9 in these games, including losing their first four Interleague games and then winning six-straight right after... Their .286 (200-for-699) batting average led the majors during IL play, while their 119 RBI, .346 OBP, and .491 slugging ranked as the second-most, and their 31 home runs fifth-most.

FARMERS' ALMANAC: The O's finished the 2020 season with 33 home games and 27 road games...Their 33 home games were tied for the most in the majors...The O's had five games (three at home) with weather delays — totaling 8 hours, 16 minutes.

TIE GAMES

The Orioles have played 12 tie games; all except one were in Baltimore (one each in '03, '01, '96, '82, and eight others between '55 and '64). Most were Baltimore curfew related. Those curfews, which prohibited starting an inning after 11:50 p.m. six days a week and required the immediate suspension of play at 11:50 p.m. on Saturdays, are no longer in effect. Tie games were played against: Chicago White Sox-4, New York Yankees-3, Kansas City A's-3, Milwaukee Brewers-1, Texas Rangers-1.

2020 MINOR LEAGUE RECAP

After Orioles affiliates finished the 2019 regular season with a combined record of 421-393, the 10th-best mark by organizational winning percentage (.517) among all 30 organizations, the 2020 Minor League Baseball season was cancelled due to the impact of the COVID-19 pandemic. Orioles minor leaguers continued their development at the team's Alternate Training Site at Prince George's Stadium in Bowie, Md., during Fall Instructional League camp at the Ed Smith Stadium complex in Sarasota, Fla., and remotely in collaboration with coaches and player development staff.

In December 2020, the Orioles extended invitations to the Norfolk Tides (AAA), Bowie Baysox (AA), Aberdeen IronBirds (A-Adv.), and Delmarva Shorebirds (A) to continue as minor league affiliates. The new minor league structure is a result of the Office of the Commissioner's collaboration with all 30 MLB Club Baseball Operations departments, minor league owners, and government officials to modernize the sport's player development system in order to better serve fans, players, and clubs throughout the United States and Canada. The Orioles will also continue to collaborate with the community of Frederick, Md., where the club has worked with MLB and Prep Baseball Report PBR to bring the MLB Draft League to Frederick residents. The MLB Draft League is the first league in the country focused on top prospects who are eligible for the annual MLB Draft.

According to Baseball America, the Orioles rank No. 7 in the publication's 2021 MLB Organization Talent Rankings, moving up five spots from No. 12 in 2020. In 37 years of the publication's annual farm system rankings, it is the highest-ever rank for an Orioles' farm system. The Orioles boast five of the top players in Baseball America's 2021 Top 100 Prospects: C Adley Rutschman (2), RHP Grayson Rodriguez (22), LHP DL Hall (59), OF Heston Kjerstad (62), and INF/OF Ryan Mountcastle (63). In January, the Orioles opened the 2020-21 International Signing period with 17 contract agreements. The 2020-21 International Signing Class featured the club's first-ever seven figure international signings, C Samuel Basallo and SS Maikol Hernández, as well as 11 more six-figure agreements. Of the 17 total agreements, 13 were from the Dominican Republic and four from Venezuela.

BALTIMORE ORIOLES

MINOR LEAGUE PLAYERS OF THE YEAR

After breakout campaigns during the 2019 season, the Orioles selected INF/OF Ryan Mountcastle as the club's top minor league player, and RHP Mike Baumann and RHP Grayson Rodriguez as the club's top minor league pitchers.

Mountcastle, the Brooks Robinson Minor League Player of the Year, was named the International League's Most Valuable Player on August 27, becoming the first Tides player to be named league MVP since INF/OF Roberto Petagine in 1997. In 127 games with Triple-A Norfolk, he batted .312/.344/.527 (162-for-520) with 35 doubles, one triple, 25 home runs, 81 runs scored, and 83 RBI, earning him both Mid-Season and Postseason International League All-Star honors. He led the International League with 162 hits, becoming the first Tides player to lead the league in hits since INF Mike Cervenak did so with 157 in 2007. Mountcastle earned Orioles Minor League Player of the Month honors in July after batting .333 (36-for-108) with 11 doubles, four home runs, 15 runs, and 15 RBI over 25 games. He was also named the International League Batter of the Week for the period of April 15-21.

Baumann, the Jim Palmer Minor League Co-Pitcher of the Year, pitched to a combined 7-6 record with a 2.98 ERA (41 ER/124.0 IP) and 142 strikeouts in 24 games (22 starts) between Class A-Advanced Frederick and Double-A Bowie. He threw a no-hitter for Bowie on July 16 against Harrisburg, becoming the first Baysox hurler to toss a 9.0-inning no-hitter since RHP Radhames Liz achieved the feat in 2007, also against Harrisburg. In his first five appearances (three starts) with Bowie, he pitched to a 2-1 record with a 0.33 ERA (1 ER/27.0 IP) and 32 strikeouts. He was named the Orioles Minor League Pitcher of the Month for July, and was twice named the Eastern League Pitcher of the Week; first for the period of July 15-21, and again for the period of August 12-18. While with the Keys, Baumann was named the Carolina League Pitcher of the Week for the period of April 29-May 5. He was selected as a Mid-Season Carolina League All-Star with Frederick.

Rodriguez, the Jim Palmer Minor League Co-Pitcher of the Year, was named the South Atlantic League's Most Outstanding MLB Prospect after he pitched to a 10-4 record with a 2.68 ERA (28 ER/94.0 IP) and 129 strikeouts in 20 starts for Class-A Delmarva, his first full professional season. Rodriguez was selected to participate in the 2019 Sirius/XM All-Star Futures Game on Sunday, July 7, in Cleveland, Ohio. After the scheduled 7.0 innings had been completed, the game remained tied at 2-2. Rodriguez entered the game to pitch the eighth inning with a runner at second base to begin the extra frame; he retired all three batters faced on 11 pitches to keep the game tied. He was named both a Mid-Season and Postseason SAL All-Star. In eight starts at Arthur W. Perdue Stadium, he went 6-0 with a 0.82 ERA (4 ER/43.2 IP) and 61 strikeouts. His 0.82 ERA at home was the lowest among all South Atlantic League pitchers with at least 40.0 innings pitched. He was named the Orioles Minor League Pitcher of the Month for April after going 3-0 with a 0.54 ERA (1 ER/16.2 IP), including a 14.2-inning scoreless streak to begin the season. He was also named the South Atlantic League Pitcher of the Week for the period of April 4-14.

ORIOLES DRAFT NOTES

The 2021 First-Year Player Draft will be held Sunday, July 11, through Tuesday, July 13, in Atlanta, Ga., during All-Star Week, the first time since its inception in 1965 that the event will be scheduled outside the month of June. This year, the Orioles will have the fifth overall pick, the third consecutive year the club has held one of the top five picks. Since the First-Year Player Draft began in 1965, 31 of Baltimore's 54 first round selections have gone on to appear in the Major Leagues. Of those 31 players, 25 made their Major League debut with the Orioles.

CAL RIPKEN, SR. AWARD

Delmarva Pitching Coach JUSTIN RAMSEY was named the winner of the Cal Ripken, Sr. Player Development Award, named for the late Orioles coach and manager who is widely regarded as the architect of "The Oriole Way." Each year, a minor league staff member who exemplifies Ripken's qualities as an instructor is recognized with the award. In his first season as a coach in the Orioles system after over a decade in the college ranks, Ramsey oversaw one of the premier pitching staffs in Minor League Baseball. The Shorebirds led the South Atlantic League in ERA (3.00), WHIP (1.18), and strikeouts (1,389), and allowed the fewest home runs (67). Delmarva set the South Atlantic League record for the most strikeouts in a single season on August 26 at Lakewood, surpassing the previous record set by Lakewood in 2018.

HOMER'S ODYSSEY

Jonathan Villar hit his 21st home run of the season on September 11, 2019, against Los Angeles-NL off of LHP Caleb Ferguson. The homer, a three-run shot in the seventh inning that gave the O's a 5-2 lead, was the 6,106th of the 2019 Major League season, surpassing the previous single-season record of 6,105 home runs in 2017. The bat that Villar used to hit the historic home run was sent to the National Baseball Hall of Fame and Museum in Cooperstown.

EUTAW STREET HOME RUNS (1992-2020)

Of the 106 home runs hit onto the Eutaw Street promenade since Oriole Park opened in 1992, Orioles batters have hit 48, including 11 by Chris Davis, the most by an individual. Jason Giambi's three are the most by an opposing player. A season-high 11 homers landed on Eutaw St. in 2012. Luke Scott's blast on July 19, 2008 was the only walk-off Eutaw St. home run in park history until August 11, 2019, when Rio Ruiz clubbed a two-run home run in the bottom of the ninth inning to give the Orioles their first walk-off win of the season. On June 29, 2019, Anthony Santander slugged the 100th Eutaw St. home run in the history of Oriole Park at Camden Yards.

NOTES ON 20-GAME WINNERS

Although the Orioles have not had one in the past 36 seasons, Baltimore pitchers have produced 24 20-win seasons including 23 in the past 52 years (starting in '68), more than any other Major League club. The A's (17), Yankees (16), Cardinals (13), Red Sox (13), Astros (12), White Sox (12), Braves (12), Dodgers (12), Tigers (11), Cubs (10), and Twins (10) are the only other teams with 10-or-more since 1968.

In 1971, four Baltimore pitchers reached the 20-win plateau, becoming the second foursome in the history of Major League Baseball to have achieved the feat, joining a quartet from the 1920 White Sox (51 years earlier): Urban "Red" Faber-23, Claude Williams-22, Dickie Kerr-21, and Ed Cicotte-21.

Steve Stone was the earliest 20-game winner in club history, winning his 20th game on August 19, 1980, en route to a team-record 25 victories. Three other Orioles hurlers have recorded their 20th wins in August: Dave McNally (August 25) and Mike Cuellar (August 27) in 1971, and Jim Palmer (August 20) in 1975.

The first Oriole to win 20, and the only one in the club's first 14 seasons in Baltimore (1954 through 1967), was left-hander Steve Barber in 1963.

BALTIMORE ORIOLES

BALTIMORE ORIOLES GOLD GLOVE AWARDS

The Gold Glove Award was initiated in 1957 by the Rawlings Sporting Goods Company in cooperation with The Sporting News to acknowledge individual defensive excellence by a vote of managers and coaches in each league.

Gold Glove totals by each team: Cardinals 91, ORIOLES 71, Yankees 65, Braves 56, Reds 55, Pirates 49, Red Sox 49, Phillies 47, Dodgers 46, Twins 44, Cubs 43, Giants 43, Tigers 43, Mariners 42, Rangers 40, Angels 39, White Sox 39, Royals 36, Indians 35, Astros 26, Athletics 25, Rockies 25, Blue Jays 24, Expos/Nationals 23, Padres 23, Mets 19, Diamondbacks 17, Marlins 12, Brewers 11, and Rays 9.

A total of 17 Orioles have won Gold Gloves, with all 17 winning multiple times, led by Brooks Robinson, who is tied with pitcher Jim Kaat for second place all-time with 16 Gold Gloves. Greg Maddux is first all-time with 18 Gold Gloves. Manny Machado earned his second career Gold Glove award in 2015 (also, 2013).

Orioles winners include: Paul Blair and Mark Belanger (eight each); Adam Jones, Jim Palmer, Bobby Grich, and Mike Mussina (four each); J.J. Hardy, Davey Johnson, and Eddie Murray (three each); Roberto Alomar, Luis Aparicio, Manny Machado, Nick Markakis, Rafael Palmeiro, Cal Ripken, Jr., and Matt Wieters (two each). Alomar won a total of 10 Gold Gloves in his career, Aparicio won nine total, Mussina seven total, and Palmeiro three total.

BALTIMORE ORIOLES

ALL-STAR NOTES

BIRDS OF A FEATHER: The Orioles have had 23 All-Stars over the last nine seasons (since 2012)...According to STATS, LLC., the 23 Orioles All-Stars since 2012 are tied for the fifth-most in the American League and are tied for eighth in the majors...The Cardinals, Dodgers, and Yankees are tied for the MLB lead with 29 All-Stars each since 2012...The Orioles are one of 19 teams with at least 20 All-Stars over the last nine seasons.

ROOKIE SENSATION: LHP John Means was named to the 2019 American League All-Star team as the Orioles' lone representative...According to STATS, LLC., Means was the fifth rookie in Orioles history (since 1954), and first since 1966, to be named to the All-Star team...He joined RHP Chuck Estrada (1960), 1B Jim Gentile (1960), INF Ron Hansen (1960), and C Andy Etchebarren (1966) as O's rookie All-Stars...He became the first homegrown O's starter to make the All-Star team since Hall of Famer Mike Mussina.

FIVE STARS: Five Orioles were named American League All-Stars in 2016, including RHP Brad Brach, LHP Zack Britton, INF Manny Machado, OF Mark Trumbo, and C Matt Wieters...Brach made the first All-Star Game appearance of his career...Britton and Trumbo made their second All-Star Game appearances...Machado was an All-Star for the third time (also 2013, 2015) and Wieters made his fourth All-Star Game appearance (also 2011, 2012, 2014)...Machado was voted by fans as the starting third baseman for the American League team in the Midsummer Classic...Britton earned the save for the American League squad, allowing one hit over a scoreless ninth inning.

GAME WINNER: In 2009, in his first All-Star Game, OF Adam Jones went 0-1 with a sacrifice fly and the game-winning RBI...At 23 years old, he was the third-youngest player with a game-winning RBI in the eighth inning or later of an All-Star Game, behind OF Ted Williams (1941) and INF Hank Blalock (2003), each of whom did it at age 22...Jones was the youngest Oriole to make the AL squad since RHP Mike Mussina (also 23) in 1992 and the youngest O's position player to make the squad since INF Cal Ripken, Jr. (22) in 1983.

DOUBLE-PLAY DUOS: In 2005, INF Brian Roberts and INF Miguel Tejada became the first Orioles teammates to start in the All-Star Game since INF Roberto Alomar and INF Cal Ripken, Jr. each started in 1998...They were the third 2B-SS tandem from the same team to start for the AL since fan balloting returned in 1970, joining New York's INF Willie Randolph and INF Bucky Dent in 1981 along with Alomar and Ripken in 1996.

CAL'S FINALE: INF Cal Ripken, Jr., playing in his final All-Star Game, homered on the first pitch he saw in the third inning and went on to win his second All-Star MVP Award in the 2001 All-Star Game at Seattle's Safeco Field...Ripken, the lone Oriole selected to play in the game, led off the inning and turned on the first pitch from Los Angeles' RHP Chan Ho Park to give the American League a 1-0 lead it would not relinquish...It was the 19th time Ripken was either elected or selected to the AL All-Star squad, breaking INF Brooks Robinson's AL mark; he technically started at shortstop after Texas' INF Alex Rodriguez 'pushed' him to the position and played third base himself in the first inning...Ripken also won MVP honors in the 1991 game, homering at Toronto...With the 2001 home run, he became the oldest player (40) to homer in an All-Star Game and the only Oriole to homer twice in All-Star play.

ALL-STAR STARTS/APPEARANCES: INF Cal Ripken, Jr. was elected to start 18 years, 17 of those by fan vote...He was unable to play because of injury in 2000...Other Orioles elected to starting berths are 3B Brooks Robinson (four times); INF Roberto Alomar and OF Adam Jones (three times); INF Boog Powell, OF Frank Robinson, and INF Manny Machado (two each); and DH Nelson Cruz, INF J.J. Hardy, INF Chris Davis, INF Bobby Grich, OF Ken Singleton, INF Eddie Murray, C Terry Kennedy, OF Brady Anderson, INF Brian Roberts, and INF Miguel Tejada (one each).

HOME RUN DERBY: OF Mark Trumbo competed in the 2016 T-Mobile Home Run Derby...Trumbo, the No. 1 seed, defeated INF Corey Seager in the opening round of the bracket-style format, 16-15, before falling to No. 5 seed and eventual Home Run Derby champion OF Giancarlo Stanton of the Miami Marlins in the semifinals, 17-14...A No. 5 seed in the 2015 Home Run Derby, INF Manny Machado was defeated by the Dodgers' OF Joc Pederson (No. 4 seed) in the first round of the bracket format, 13-12...In 2014, OF Adam Jones was selected by captain OF Jose Bautista to represent the AL at Target Field (Minneapolis)...After leading four in the first round, Jones was ousted by OF Yoenis Cespedes in the second round, finishing with seven home runs total...After blasting the majors in homers at the break, INF Chris Davis took part in the 2013 Home Run Derby at Citi Field in New York...He finished fourth...A last-minute replacement to the 2004 Home Run Derby at Minute Maid Park in Houston, INF Miguel Tejada set records at the time for home runs in one round (15) and overall (27) to win the contest...He was the second Oriole to win the derby, joining INF Cal Ripken, Jr., who hit 12 homers at Toronto's SkyDome in 1991...Tejada also took part in the 2006 Home Run Derby in Detroit after declining to participate in the 2005 contest, instead bowing to DH David Ortiz to represent the Dominican Republic in the revised United States vs. the World format.

ORIOLES ALL-STAR HOMERS: INF Miguel Tejada's home run in the 2005 game at Detroit was the seventh overall by an Oriole in an All-Star Game...INF Cal Ripken, Jr. also hit two home runs in All-Star Games, in 1991 (July 9 at Toronto off RHP Dennis Martinez, two on) and 2001 (July 10 at Seattle off RHP Chan Ho Park, solo)...The others were by INF Brooks Robinson (July 11, 1967 at Anaheim off RHP Fergie Jenkins, solo); OF Frank Robinson (July 13, 1971 at Detroit off RHP Dock Ellis, one on); OF Ken Singleton (August 9, 1981 at Cleveland off RHP Tom Seaver, solo); and INF Roberto Alomar (July 7, 1998 at Colorado off RHP Trevor Hoffman, solo).

BALTIMORE ORIOLES

1966

The Orioles went 97-63 and claimed their first American League pennant. The Orioles swept the four-game series against the Los Angeles Dodgers to win their first World Series title.

At the age of 20, Jim Palmer beat Sandy Koufax in Game 2 to become the youngest pitcher to ever throw a shutout in the World Series. Frank Robinson, who also won the Triple Crown in 1966, was named the World Series Most Valuable Player. Following the season, Frank Robinson, Brooks Robinson, and Boog Powell finished 1-2-3 in American League MVP voting.

The Orioles finished the season with the second-best record in Major League Baseball at 96-66 and their first American League East division title since 1997. The Birds would draw the American League Central division champion Detroit Tigers in the ALDS, and faced the AL's last three Cy Young Award winners at the time in Max Scherzer, Justin Verlander, and David Price. The Orioles won each of the first two games in Baltimore and took the first game in Detroit to sweep the series 3-0 and advance to the ALCS to take on the Kansas City Royals.

The Orioles dropped each of the first two games in Baltimore to the Royals. The series then shifted to Kansas City where the Royals would pull out 2-1 wins in both Games 3 and 4 to complete the sweep of Baltimore and eliminate the Orioles.

For the third time in five seasons, the Orioles advanced to postseason play, clinching a berth in the American League Wild Card Game. Baltimore traveled to Toronto to take on the Blue Jays at Rogers Centre for the one-game playoff on October 4. The Blue Jays would prevail in 11 innings on an Edwin Encarnación walk-off home run, knocking the Orioles out of the playoffs after just one game.

BALTIMORE ORIOLES

BASEBALL IN BALTIMORE

1872 – The Lord Baltimores, the city's first professional team, began play in the National Association. In their inaugural game on April 18 in Washington, they beat the Olympics, 16-0. In their home opener on April 22, before 3,500 fans at Newington Park (on Pennsylvania Avenue below Baker Street), they beat the New York Mutuals, 14-9. The team folded in its third season as a rival franchise, the Maryland Base Ball Club, turned from amateur to professional and took its place in the league through 1874. By 1875 the National Association itself had folded.

1882 – A newly formed Lord Baltimores team made its debut in the American Association, a new rival to the National League. A year later, the franchise moved to newly built Oriole Park (on the southwest corner of what is now Greenmount Avenue and 25th Street) and adopted the name "Orioles," the first time that Maryland's state bird was used as a nickname in association with Baltimore's professional baseball team.

1884 – Two more Baltimore teams were formed. One, also named the Orioles, played in the new Union Association; by mid-season they were transferred to Lancaster, Pa., and the league folded after one season. The other, the Monumentals, became a charter member of the Eastern Association, which would become today's International League, but the team broke up after a mere 13 games.

1892 – Baltimore joined the National League. Games were played at Union Park, a 12,000-seat stadium at the northeast corner of Barclay and 25th Street.

1894-1896 – With innovative Ned Hanlon as manager, the scrappy Orioles won three straight National League pennants, led by future Hall of Famers John McGraw, Dan Brouthers, Joe Kelley, Willie Keeler, and Hughie Jennings.

1899 – With most of their star players having been sold to Brooklyn, the Orioles finished their eighth season before folding. There would be no professional team in Baltimore as the new century dawned.

1901 – A new Baltimore Orioles team joined the upstart American League, with John McGraw as manager and an overflow crowd of 10,371 at Opening Day. The Orioles played two seasons in Baltimore before folding. The league awarded a new team to New York to fill the vacancy. That team, the Highlanders, eventually became the New York Yankees.

1903 – A minor league team using the name Baltimore Orioles joined the Eastern League. They were in existence for nine seasons, playing at American League Park, at York Road and 29th Street. The team won the league pennant in 1908 under second-year manager Jack Dunn.

1912 – The minor league Orioles joined the International League. They were a part of the league for the next 42 seasons until Major League Baseball returned.

1914 – A second Baltimore team, the Terrapins (named for an edible type of turtle common to the state of Maryland), entered the newly formed Federal League. The league folded after just two seasons. The team played at Terrapin Park, built on the west side of Greenmount Avenue between 29th and 30th street; two years later, Jack Dunn bought the ballpark and renamed it Oriole Park.

1914 – Jack Dunn, owner, general manager, and manager of the International League Orioles, signed 19-year-old George Herman Ruth out of a Baltimore orphanage. Oriole players kid Dunn about his "babe," and a nickname was born. By July, Babe Ruth was sold to the Boston Red Sox.

1919-1925 – The Orioles, led by Dunn, won a record seven straight International League titles. For five of those years (1920-24), future Hall of Famer Lefty Grove led the pitching staff, going 108-36.

1920s-40s – The city fielded two teams in the Negro Leagues - the Elite Giants and the Black Sox. Second baseman James "Junior" Gilliam and Hall of Fame catcher Roy Campanella each played two different stints for the Elite Giants on their way to Major League careers with the Brooklyn Dodgers' "Boys of Summer."

1944 – After winning the International League title, the Orioles beat Louisville of the American Association to win the Junior World Series. It wasn't easy, however; a fire in the early morning hours of July 4 destroyed Oriole Park, led the team to use Municipal Stadium, a football facility on 33rd Street. One game of the Junior World Series drew 52,833 paid fans, outdrawing each of the World Series games in St. Louis between the Browns and Cardinals and attracted interest from teams in the Major Leagues and professional football.

1953 – The Orioles, owned by Jack Dunn III, played their final season in the International League. After two votes failed, on September 29, American League owners approved the sale of the financially struggling St. Louis Browns franchise to a Baltimore-based consortium led by attorney Clarence W. Miles and brewery owner Jerold C. Hoffberger.

BACK IN THE MAJORS

1955 – Brooks Robinson was signed; he made his Major League debut on September 17 but did not establish himself as the regular third baseman and future Hall of Famer until 1958.

JULY 8, 1958 – Memorial Stadium hosted its first and only All-Star Game. The Orioles' Billy O'Dell retired the last nine batters to preserve a 4-3 win for the American League.

SEPTEMBER 20, 1958 – Knuckleballer Hoyt Wilhelm hurled the first no-hitter in Orioles history, beating the Yankees 1-0 at Memorial Stadium. Two years later, manager Paul Richards introduced the "big mitt" designed to help catchers cut down on passed balls and wild pitches from Wilhelm's knuckleball.

SEPTEMBER 18, 1963 – Steve Barber became the first 20-game winner in club history, beating the Angels, 3-1, in California.

JUNE 1965 – Jerry Hoffberger, whose family was among the original group of owners of the Orioles when it moved to Baltimore, took control of the ballclub as majority owner. He led the club for 14 years, during which the Orioles went to the postseason six times.

DECEMBER 9, 1965 – The Orioles made arguably the greatest trade in franchise history, acquiring former All-Star outfielder Frank Robinson from the Cincinnati Reds for Milt Pappas and two players acquired earlier in the week, Jack Baldschun and Dick Simpson. New GM Harry Dalton completed the trade, which had begun a month earlier by his predecessor, Lee MacPhail, Jr.

MAY 8, 1966 – Frank Robinson hit the only fair ball ever to leave Memorial Stadium, a shot over the left field bleachers measured at 465 ft. The Orioles later commemorated the event with a flag at the top of the bleachers where the ball left the park, simply saying "HERE."

SEPTEMBER 22, 1966 – Twenty-year-old Jim Palmer pitched a complete game as the Orioles clinch their first American League pennant with a 6-1 win at Kansas City. Palmer won 268 games and three Cy Young Awards in a 19-year career with the Orioles on his way to the Hall of Fame.

1966 – "Would You Believe Four Straight?" The Orioles stunned the baseball world by sweeping the favored Los Angeles Dodgers in the World Series. Frank Robinson won the American League triple crown (.316-49-122). Frank, Brooks Robinson, and Boog Powell finished 1-2-3 in the American League MVP voting.

1968 – Longtime minor league manager Earl Weaver was added to the coaching staff at the beginning of the season and, on July 11, was named manager of the Orioles. He went on to post a 1,480-1,060 record in 17 seasons before being elected to the Hall of Fame.

1969-71 – Pitching, three-run homers, and defense stamp Weaver's Orioles, as they captured three straight American League East titles, a trio of AL pennants, and the 1970 World Series. Brooks Robinson earned the nickname "Hoover" from future teammate Lee May after showing off his defensive skills in the 1970 series triumph over the Reds.

1973-74 – The Orioles won back-to-back AL East titles, giving them five division titles in six years. However, they were beaten by Oakland in the American League Championship Series both years.

JUNE 15, 1976 – Hank Peters, in his first year as Orioles general manager, began to remake the club with a 10-player trade with the New York Yankees. Future Orioles Hall of Fame members Scott McGregor, Tippy Martinez, and Rick Dempsey came from the Yankees; catcher Elrod Hendricks, who later will be traded and return twice more, was among those sent to New York.

SEPTEMBER 18, 1977 – Memorial Stadium was filled with 51,798 fans on "Thanks, Brooks Day," celebrating the end of the third baseman's 23-year career, all with the Orioles.

BALTIMORE ORIOLES

JUNE 22, 1979 – Doug DeCinces' two-out, two-run homer in the bottom of the ninth inning capped a monumental comeback against Detroit and gave birth to "Orioles Magic."

1979 – The Orioles won the American League pennant for the fifth time and took a 3-1 lead over Pittsburgh in the World Series, but the Pirates' "fam-i-lee" came back to win the last three games and the World Championship.

NOVEMBER 1, 1979 – American League owners approved the August sale of the Orioles to Washington attorney Edward Bennett Williams. The purchase ended both local and public ownership of the club.

AUGUST 10, 1981 – Cal Ripken, Jr. made his Major League debut, scoring the winning run as a 12th-inning pinch-runner vs. Kansas City at Memorial Stadium.

1981 – The Orioles' 59-46 record was the best in the American League, but not good enough for the playoffs. Following a mid-year strike, baseball decided to play the season in two halves and the Orioles finished second to New York and Milwaukee in the two halves.

OCTOBER 1-3, 1982 – The Orioles, three games behind Milwaukee with four games to play heading into a final weekend series with the Brewers, took the first three games at Memorial Stadium to force a tie for first. The Brewers spoiled the comeback with a 10-2 win in the season finale. Earl Weaver, who two months earlier had announced retirement at the end of the season, was saluted by 51,462 fans in an emotional celebration and farewell following the game.

1983 – The Orioles lost the first game of the American League Championship Series before coming back to beat the Chicago White Sox in three straight games. They lost the World Series opener to the Philadelphia Phillies before coming back to win four straight for their third World Championship. Cal Ripken, Jr. was named AL MVP (.318-27-102) in a close race over teammate Eddie Murray (.306-33-111).

1988 – The Orioles lost a Major League-record 21 consecutive games to start the season.

MAY 2, 1988 – Returning home to Memorial Stadium with a 1-23 record, the Orioles played before 50,402 fans on a Monday night. In a dramatic pre-game announcement, Governor William Donald Schaefer announced that Orioles owner Edward Bennett Williams and the Maryland Stadium Authority agreed on a 15-year lease for a new ballpark to be constructed at Camden Yards for the 1992 season.

DECEMBER 1988 – Investor Eli S. Jacobs bought the Orioles from the estate of Edward Bennett Williams, who passed away in August.

1989 – "Why Not?" was the rallying cry of the young Orioles, who improbably led the AL East into September. They eventually lost at Toronto on the next-to-last day of the season, giving the Blue Jays the division crown.

OCTOBER 6, 1991 – After 38 years, the Memorial Stadium era ended as the Orioles played their last game on 33rd Street. Cal Ripken, Jr. – who added his second MVP Award to the All-Star Game MVP trophy he won mid-season – hit into a game-ending double play, but the 7-1 loss to Detroit did not diminish an emotional "Field of Dreams" celebration afterward as more than 100 former Orioles returned in uniform to take their old positions one last time before 50,700 fans.

APRIL 6, 1992 – Oriole Park at Camden Yards ushered in a new era of "retro ballparks" and the Orioles beat the Indians, 2-0, on Rick Sutcliffe's complete game. The ballpark, on the western edge of downtown, helped revitalize the neighborhood and earned wide acclaim for its architectural design and fan-friendly features.

JULY 13, 1993 – Oriole Park hosted the city's second All-Star Game, following a week-long "All-Star Fan Fest," the first of its kind.

AUGUST 2, 1993 – Baltimore attorney Peter Angelos led a group of investors – most of whom were Baltimoreans – in buying the Orioles at an auction from Eli S. Jacobs. American League owners approved the sale on October 4.

SEPTEMBER 6, 1995 – The Iron Man topped the Iron Horse: Cal Ripken, Jr. surpassed a record once thought unbeatable, playing in his 2,131st consecutive game to pass Lou Gehrig's all-time record. Ripken's homer in the game helped beat the Angels, 4-2.

1995 – The Orioles drew 3,098,475 fans in the strike-shortened season to lead the American League in attendance for the first time in their history. They went on to lead the league in attendance for four straight years.

SEPTEMBER 6, 1996 – Future Hall of Famer Eddie Murray, who returned to the club in a mid-season trade with Cleveland, hit his 500th career home run into the right field seats at Camden Yards.

1996 – A Major League-record 10 different Orioles hit at least 10 home runs during the season as the Orioles broke the New York Yankees 35-year-old mark for home runs by a team. The Orioles advanced to the playoffs as the Wild Card team, finishing second in the AL East. They beat Cleveland in the American League Division Series before the Yankees ended the Orioles postseason hopes in the ALCS.

1997 – The Orioles went wire-to-wire to win the AL East. They beat Seattle in the Division Series before falling in six games to Cleveland in the ALCS.

SEPTEMBER 20, 1998 – Cal Ripken, Jr. ended his consecutive game streak at 2,632, sitting out the Orioles' final home game of the season at Camden Yards vs. the New York Yankees. Ryan Minor started in his place at third base.

APRIL 15, 2000 – Cal Ripken, Jr. singled at Minnesota's Metrodome off Hector Carrasco for his 3,000th career hit, the first Oriole and 24th player to reach that milestone.

OCTOBER 6, 2001 – Having announced in May his plans to retire at season's end, Cal Ripken, Jr. played his last game as an Oriole before 48,807 fans at Camden Yards. His 21-year career resulted in a first-ballot election to the Hall of Fame.

JULY 31, 2006 – The Mid-Atlantic Sports Network, a regional television channel owned primarily by the Orioles, began 24-hour programming. The network is the rightsholder for both Orioles and Washington Nationals games.

NOVEMBER 12, 2008 – The Orioles unveiled their new road uniform with a script "Baltimore" across the chest. The Orioles' road uniform had featured a script "Orioles" across the chest since 1973.

OCTOBER 5, 2012 – The Orioles and Rangers met in the first American League Wild Card "play-in" game in Arlington. The Orioles won 5-1 to advance to the ALDS, where they fell in five games to the Yankees.

2013 – Chris Davis homered for the 51st time on September 17 at Boston, breaking Brady Anderson's club record set in 1996. Davis added two more before season's end, finishing with 53. The Orioles finished with a .991 fielding percentage, the best in Major League history.

SEPTEMBER 16, 2014 – With an 8-2 victory over the Toronto Blue Jays, the Orioles secured their ninth AL East Division title in team history, marking the third time the club had clinched in Baltimore, the first time since 1979, and the first division clinch with a win in Baltimore since 1969.

OCTOBER 5, 2014 – The Orioles swept the Detroit Tigers with a 2-1 victory in Game 3 of the American League Division Series to advance to the ALCS for the first time since 1997, where they fell to the Kansas City Royals in four games.

APRIL 29, 2015 – Citing the need for local resources to be better utilized during a period of unrest in Baltimore, the Orioles played an unprecedented game without fans against the Chicago White Sox after closing the contest to the public. The Orioles went on to win, 8-2.

JUNE 16, 2015 – Seven different Orioles combined to slug a club-record eight home runs against the Philadelphia Phillies, surpassing the previous club mark of seven. Chris Davis' fourth inning blast was his seventh career home run to land on Eutaw Street, the most such home runs in Oriole Park history by an individual player. He hit his eighth career Eutaw Street home run on August 14, 2015 vs. Oakland, and has 11 career Eutaw Street home runs.

JUNE 28, 2015 – In the second game of a doubleheader against Cleveland, the Orioles recorded their 5,000th regular season victory in club history.

AUGUST 1, 2015 – Outfielder Gerardo Parra became the 1,000th player to appear in a game for the Orioles since the team moved to Baltimore in 1954.

OCTOBER 4, 2016 – The Orioles advanced to postseason play for the third time in five seasons, and met the Toronto Blue Jays in the American League Wild Card Game. The Blue Jays defeated the Orioles, 5-2, in 11 innings at Rogers Centre.

AUGUST 5, 2017 – The Orioles reached 10,000 regular season home runs in Orioles history (since 1954) against Detroit, when Tim Beckham connected for a solo home run in the eighth inning off of Edward Mujica.

2018 – The Orioles finished the season with a franchise-worst 115 losses, posting a record of 47-115 (.290) and 61 games behind first-place Boston.

2019 – The Orioles finished the season with over 100 losses for the second consecutive year, posting a record of 54-108 (.333) and 49 games behind first-place New York-AL. On June 3, the Orioles selected catcher Adley Rutschman from Oregon State University with the first overall selection of the 2019 Major League Baseball First-Year Player Draft. On July 25 at Los Angeles-AL, Stevie Wilkerson became the first position player to record a save since the save became an official statistic in 1969.

2020 – Due to the COVID-19 pandemic, the Orioles played a 60-game regular season schedule, the fewest in the club's history.

BALTIMORE ORIOLES

ORIOLES IN THE NATIONAL BASEBALL HALL OF FAME

There are currently six players and/or managers enshrined in the National Baseball Hall of Fame and Museum in Cooperstown, N.Y. as Orioles (induction year in parenthesis):

Cal Ripken, Jr., SS (2007)
Eddie Murray, 1B (2003)

Earl Weaver, Manager (1996)
Jim Palmer, RHP (1990)

Brooks Robinson, 3B (1983)
Frank Robinson, RF (1982)

In 2007, Cal Ripken, Jr. received 98.53 percent of the vote total (537 of the 545 ballots cast) by eligible members of the Baseball Writers' Association of America. At the time, it was the third-highest percent of the vote total in the history of the Hall of Fame, behind only Tom Seaver (98.84% in 1992) and Nolan Ryan (98.79% in 1999).

All five players to be inducted into the Hall of Fame as Orioles were elected in their first year of eligibility (Earl Weaver was selected as a manager by the Veterans Committee).

Additionally, there are 17 other modern-day players, managers, and front office executives with ties to the Orioles organization that have been inducted into the Hall of Fame (induction year in parenthesis):

Mike Mussina, RHP (2019)
Harold Baines, OF (2019)
Lee Smith, RHP (2019)
Vladimir Guerrero, RF (2018)
Jim Thome, 1B (2018)
Tim Lincecum, LF (2017)

John Schuerholz, Executive (2017)
Roberto Alomar, 2B (2011)
Pat Gillick, Executive (2011)
Whitey Herzog, Manager (2010)
Dick Williams, Manager (2008)
Lee MacPhail, Executive (1998)

Reggie Jackson, RF (1993)
Hoyt Wilhelm, RHP (1985)
Luis Aparicio, SS (1984)
George Kell, 3B (1983)
Robin Roberts, RHP (1976)

In addition to the nine former Orioles players that have been inducted as members of other organizations, three executives and two managers that have spent time with the Orioles have also been enshrined in Cooperstown:

Pat Gillick, who played for the Orioles as a minor leaguer and later served as General Manager of the Orioles from 1995-98, was elected by the Veterans Committee and was inducted into the Hall of Fame in 2011.

Dick Williams, who had three different tenures as a player with the Orioles in the late 1950s and early 1960s, was named a 2008 inductee to the Hall of Fame as a manager after managing 21 years in the Major Leagues with six different teams, winning four league titles and two world championships.

Lee MacPhail, who served as General Manager of the Orioles from 1959-65, was inducted into the Hall of Fame as an executive by the Veterans Committee in 1998. His son, Andy, would serve as the President of Baseball Operations with the Orioles from 2007-11.

Whitey Herzog was inducted into the Baseball Hall of Fame as a manager, but played for the Orioles from 1961-62.

John Schuerholz, a member of the Orioles front office from 1966-68, was elected to the Baseball Hall of Fame by the Today's Game Era Committee as part of the 2017 class. Schuerholz currently serves as vice chairman of the Atlanta Braves and spent 26 years as a Major League Baseball general manager from 1982-2007 with the Kansas City Royals and Braves.

NATIVE MARYLANDERS IN THE HALL OF FAME

Currently, 10 members of the National Baseball Hall of Fame and Museum have been born in Maryland: John Schuerholz (Baltimore), Cal Ripken, Jr. (Havre de Grace), Frank "Home Run" Baker (Trappe), Lefty Grove (Lonaconing), George Herman "Babe" Ruth (Baltimore), Jimmie Foxx (Sudlersville), Judy Johnson (Snow Hill), Al Kaline (Baltimore), Vic Willis (Elkton), and Bowie Kuhn (Takoma Park).

Additionally, of the nine members of the Hall of Fame to be born in Maryland, four once played for the Orioles. Cal Ripken, Jr. played for Baltimore (1981-2001), while Frank "Home Run" Baker (1907), Lefty Grove (1920-24), and Babe Ruth (1914) all played for the International League Orioles.

FORD C. FRICK AWARD WINNERS

In addition to longtime Orioles voice Chuck Thompson, four other Orioles broadcasters have won the Ford C. Frick Award: Ernie Harwell ('54-'59), Herb Carneal ('57-'61), Bob Murphy ('60-'61), and Jon Miller ('83-'96).

1978 Mel Allen & Red Barber	1989 Harry Caray	2000 Marty Brennaman	2011 Dave Van Horn

BALTIMORE TIES TO THE HALL OF FAME

Along with the modern-day Orioles in the Baseball Hall of Fame, several other players and managers with Orioles connections throughout Baltimore's rich baseball heritage have been enshrined in Cooperstown, N.Y. (induction year in parenthesis):

Edward "Ned" Hanlon, Manager (1996)	Roger Bresnahan, C (1945)
Joe Kelley, OF/INF (1971)	Dan Brouthers, 1B (1945)
Rube Marquard, LHP (1971)	Hughie Jennings, SS (1945)
William "Candy" Cummings, RHP (1959)	Wilbert Robinson, Manager (1945)
Frank "Home Run" Baker, 3B (1955)	Rogers Hornsby, 2B (1942)
Charles "Chief" Bender, RHP (1953)	Wee Willie Keeler, OF (1939)
Robert M. "Lefty" Grove, LHP (1947)	John McGraw, Manager (1937)
Joe "Iron Man" McGinnity, RHP (1946)	George Herman "Babe" Ruth, OF (1936)

HALL OF FAME GAME

The Orioles made their sixth scheduled appearance in the annual Hall of Fame Game at Cooperstown's Doubleday Field on May 14, 2007. The Orioles are 3-2 in Hall of Fame Games, with one game postponed by rain. The results:

1961 Los Angeles Dodgers 6, Orioles 2	1990 Orioles vs. Montreal Expos, rained out
1967 Orioles 3, Cincinnati Reds 0	1998 Orioles 7, Toronto Blue Jays 1
1983 St. Louis Cardinals 4, Orioles 1	2007 Orioles 13, Toronto Blue Jays 7

THE ORIOLES HALL OF FAME

The Orioles Hall of Fame was conceived in 1977 by the Oriole Advocates at the suggestion of two former presidents, Allen Barrett and Jack Buckley, both of whom have since passed away. The Advocates continue to administer the annual elections under the direction of their Hall of Fame Committee.

Candidates may be elected to the Orioles Hall of Fame through two channels: the regular vote by a panel of some 80 people, comprising sportswriters, broadcasters, Oriole Advocates, and Orioles personnel; or by a vote of the veterans committee, a group of 25 senior representatives from the sports media, Oriole Advocates, and the Orioles front office.

Procedures for election to the Orioles Hall of Fame are based on those used by the National Baseball Hall of Fame, requiring mention on 75 percent of ballots cast. All candidates must have served a minimum of three full seasons with the Orioles. To be eligible for regular election, a player, manager or coach must have been active in that capacity within the last 15 years, but ceased serving in the position for which he was nominated for at least one year. For consideration by the veterans committee, formed in 1989, a candidate must have ceased serving in the capacity of consideration for at least 15 years.

Last inducted into the Orioles Hall of Fame was former Orioles infielder Brian Roberts in 2018. Roberts played 13 seasons with the Orioles from 2001-2013, compiling a .278 batting average and 1,452 hits. He ranks first in Orioles history as a second baseman in all major offensive statistical categories. Roberts is also among the club's overall career leaders in stolen bases (2nd, 278), doubles (4th, 351), runs (6th, 810), triples (6th, 35), extra-base hits (7th, 478), walks (7th, 581), hits (9th, 1,452), at-bats (10th, 5,214), total bases (10th, 2,149), and games (12th, 1,327).

The Orioles Hall of Fame currently has 56 former players, coaches, and managers.

"WILD BILL" HAGY AWARD

On August 20, 2007, the Orioles lost one of their most passionate fans with the passing of William G. "Wild Bill" Hagy. Leading cheers from "The Roar from 34" at Memorial Stadium, "Wild Bill" became a Baltimore institution, contorting his body to spell out "O-R-I-O-L-E-S" from the upper deck – and sometimes coming down to lead the crowd in cheers from atop the dugout.

Upon his passing, the Orioles and the Oriole Advocates announced the creation of an award to honor the team's top fans, to be named The Wild Bill Hagy Award. The award will expand the Orioles Hall of Fame categories to include fans who have demonstrated an exceptional commitment in support of the team in the tradition of Wild Bill, who rooted for the club year in and year out. Appropriately, Hagy was named the first recipient of the award.

On July 28, 2020 Mossila "Mo" Gaba was elected to the Orioles Hall of Fame as the second-ever recipient of The Wild Billy Hagy Award. As just the second-ever recipient of The Wild Bill Hagy Award, the Orioles honored Mo as one of the most passionate and devoted fans in franchise history. Mo regularly made appearances at Orioles games and events, including in 2017, when he threw out the ceremonial first pitch as part of Kids' Opening Day, and in 2019, when his "Play Ball!" call on Kids' Opening Day officially marked the start of a new season. After inspiring countless fans and Baltimoreans with his positivity, Press Box recognized Mo as the 2019 Sportsperson of the Year.

Mo's positive energy was constant throughout every battle and brought the entire city of Baltimore together in the face of ongoing crisis. His unwavering positivity and kindness were qualities every Baltimorean aspires to emulate. Mo Gaba impacted more people in his 14 years than most people do in an entire lifetime, and the Orioles are honored to forever celebrate him as a member of the Orioles Hall of Fame.

V- Veterans Committee Selection

HERB ARMSTRONG AWARD WINNER

In 1995, the Oriole Advocates established the Herb Armstrong Award to honor non-uniformed personnel who have represented the Orioles for at least five years and made a significant contribution to the ball club, the community, or the sport of baseball. The award is named after the beloved former educator, professional baseball player, manager, and longtime official for both the Orioles' International League and American League clubs who dedicated nearly 70 years of his life to the people of Baltimore, his adopted hometown. Winners are selected by the Orioles Hall of Fame Veterans Committee and honored during the Orioles Hall of Fame Weekend ceremonies.

MOST VALUABLE ORIOLE

Outfielder Anthony Santander was voted the winner of the 2020 Louis M. Hatter Most Valuable Oriole Award by members of the local media. Santander finished the season hitting .261/.315/.575 (40-for-153) with 13 doubles, one triple, 11 home runs, 24 runs scored, 32 RBI, and 10 walks. His season was cut short after being placed on the Injured List with a strained right oblique on September 5. At the time of his injury, Santander was leading the American League in extra-base hits (25), ranked tied for second in doubles (13), third in total bases (88), tied for third in RBI (32), sixth in slugging percentage (.575), and tied for sixth in home runs (11).

Santander set a career-high with an 18-game hitting streak from August 5-23. It was the longest hitting streak by an Oriole during the 2020 season and is the longest by an Oriole since Nick Markakis in 2014. His hitting streak finished tied for the second-longest streak in the majors during 2020. Santander also recorded an RBI in a career-high eight-straight games from August 6-14 (13 total), the longest RBI streak by an Oriole since Jonathan Schoop also had a stretch of eight-straight in 2017. He collected his first of two multi-homer games on August 16 vs. WSH, including hitting the Orioles' only home run onto Eutaw Street in 2020, his third career Eutaw Street homer.

Santander led the Orioles in extra-base hits and slugging percentage, finished tied for the team lead in RBI, second in home runs, total bases, and OPS, and third in doubles. His single on August 2 vs. TB was the hardest hit ball by an Oriole during the 2020 season (113.2 MPH), according to Statcast, and his 47 hard-hit balls (95+ MPH exit velocity) were the third-most on the team. He made 35 starts in right field and one in left field and led the Orioles with four outfield assists.

The MVO Award was initiated when the Orioles returned to the majors in 1954. The award is named in honor of the late Lou Hatter, the distinguished and lovable "dean" of Baltimore baseball writers who covered the Orioles for The Baltimore Sun for 27 years. The award winner is selected through a vote of writers and broadcasters who cover the Orioles on a regular basis. There have been four ties, and no award was given in 1994. Thirteen players - Eddie Murray (seven), Cal Ripken, Jr. (four), Brooks Robinson (four), Adam Jones (three), Rafael Palmeiro (three), Frank Robinson (three), Ken Singleton (three), and Chris Davis, Stu Miller, Jim Palmer, Boog Powell, Brian Roberts, and Miguel Tejada (two) - have won the award more than once.

Inducted into the Baseball Hall of Fame in Cooperstown in August 1996, Earl Weaver currently ranks 26th in victories and his .583 winning percentage (1,480-1,060) over 17 seasons—all in Baltimore—ranks eighth on the all-time list of those who managed 10-or-more seasons in the Majors.

Weaver was a minor league second baseman for 13 years, mostly in his hometown St. Louis Cardinals organization. He began his managing career in the minors in 1956 and joined the Orioles organization a year later. He came up to the Orioles as a first base coach in 1968 and was named manager on July 11 of that year. From 1969 through 1982, he won six AL East titles, four AL pennants, and one World Series, beating the Cincinnati Reds in 1970. Weaver's Orioles won 100 games-or-more five times, and he earned Manager of the Year honors three times.

He retired following the 1982 season, which ended one game shy of another AL East title when the Orioles lost to the Milwaukee Brewers on the final day of the season. He came back to manage in mid-1985 for 1½ years before retiring for good. The only time in his 17 seasons as a manager that he posted a losing record was his last, in 1986.

Weaver passed away on January 19, 2013, at age 82. His widow, Marianna, lives in Pembroke Pines, Fla.

BROOKS ROBINSON
5

"Mr. Oriole" spent 23 seasons with the Orioles and started 20 consecutive Opening Day games. He won the American League Most Valuable Player Award in 1964 and holds the record for most Gold Gloves by a position player with 16. His election to Baseball's Hall of Fame (in his first year of eligibility in 1983) was cemented with his performance against the Cincinnati Reds in the 1970 World Series, when he was named MVP and earned the nickname "Hoover" (as in vacuum cleaners) for his play in the field.

Robinson played in 18 All-Star games. He trails only Cal Ripken, Jr. among the Orioles' all-time leaders in games, at-bats, hits, doubles, RBI, runs, total bases, and extra-base hits. In addition to his American League MVP Award in 1964 and his World Series MVP Award in 1970, he was the All-Star Game MVP in 1966 and was voted the Most Valuable Oriole in 1960, 1962, 1964, and co-winner in 1971 with Frank Robinson. He also earned the Commissioner's Trophy (now the Roberto Clemente Award) for exemplifying the game of baseball in 1972 and the Joe Cronin Award for significant achievement by an American League player in 1977. In 2016, Robinson was honored at the annual Rawlings Gold Glove Award ceremony with a Lifetime Achievement Award. In 2020, he was awarded the Bob Feller Act of Valor Award for his integrity and honorable service as an Ordnance Parts Specialist in the Army National Guard in response to the Vietnam War.

Robinson holds six Major League fielding records and seven American League records for third basemen, including 2,697 putouts. He is 15th on the all-time list of games played (fourth in the AL) and fourth in games played with one team.

He currently serves as a Special Advisor and Community Liaison for the Orioles.

A native of Little Rock, Ark., Robinson and his wife, Connie, have four children.

CAL RIPKEN, JR.
8

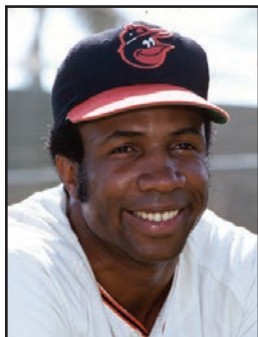

Baseball's all-time Iron Man, Cal Ripken, Jr. spent his entire 21-year career with the Orioles and was inducted into Baseball's Hall of Fame in 2007 in his first year of eligibility. He is one of only 11 players in history with both 400 HR and 3,000 hits, along with Hank Aaron, Adrián Beltré, Willie Mays, Eddie Murray, Stan Musial, Rafael Palmeiro, Albert Pujols, Alex Rodriguez, Dave Winfield, and Carl Yastrzemski. In 2001, his final season, he was elected to his 19th All-Star Game, breaking the AL record for most times as an All-Star – a record previously held by Brooks Robinson. He earned two All-Star Game MVP Awards (1991 and 2001), two American League MVP Awards (1983 and 1991), American League Rookie of the Year honors (1982), two Gold Gloves, and eight Silver Slugger awards, all at shortstop.

Ripken will be most remembered for topping the said-to-be-unbreakable record for consecutive games played set by Lou Gehrig, passing Gehrig's mark of 2,130 games on September 6, 1995. Ripken went on to play in 2,632 consecutive games before sitting on September 20, 1998.

Following the 1999 season, he was named as one of two shortstops (with Ernie Banks) on Major League Baseball's All-Century Team, selected by fans and an expert panel. Extremely active in community endeavors, he won the Roberto Clemente Award (1992) and the initial Bart Giamatti Caring Award (1990), among many other honors.

Since his playing career ended in 2001, Ripken has focused his attention on growing the game at the grassroots level and helping underserved communities. Cal's business, Ripken Baseball operates four youth baseball and softball tournament destinations known as The Ripken Experience. They are located in his hometown of Aberdeen, Md. as well as Myrtle Beach, SC, Pigeon Forge, TN and, most recently, Disney World in Orlando, FL. Cal and his family also formed the Cal Ripken, Sr. Foundation twenty years ago. Since 2001 the CRSF has grown to serve over 1 Million at-risk youth across the country annually through impactful programs such as Badges for Baseball & Healthy Children, Healthy Choices and through the construction of Youth Development Parks and Elementary School STEM Centers. To date over 100 Youth Development Parks, at a cost of roughly $1 Million each, have been built in areas of need and gifted to youth-serving organization. In addition, more than 65 STEM Centers, along with corresponding curriculum, have been added to Elementary Schools in thirteen states. In 2015, Ripken was named Major League Baseball Special Advisor on Youth Programs and Outreach by Commissioner Robert D. Manfred and since 2007 Cal has served as a Special Envoy to the US State Department and in that role has made goodwill trips to China, Japan, Nicaragua and the Czech republic.

Frank Robinson's achievements during his 21 seasons as a player rank him among the top players of all-time in 10 categories. He hit 586 home runs, 10th on the all-time list. He spent 19 seasons with the Orioles as a player (1966-71), coach (1979-80 and 85-87), manager (1988-91), and assistant general manager (1991-95).

The trade that brought Robinson from Cincinnati to Baltimore turned the Orioles from contenders to World Champions in 1966. He won the Triple Crown (.316 average, 49 homers, 122 RBI) and was both the American League and World Series MVP in his first season with the Orioles. In all, the Orioles went to the World Series four times in his six seasons as a player with them. When he was traded to the Dodgers after the 1971 season, he became the first to have his number retired by the Orioles.

Robinson was the National League Rookie of the Year with the Reds in 1956 and is the only player to win MVP honors in both leagues (1961 NL, 1966 AL). He played in 14 All-Star Games and was MVP of the 1971 Midsummer Classic. While still an active player, he became the first black manager in Major League history with the Cleveland Indians in 1975. In addition to the Indians (1975-77), he managed the San Francisco Giants (1981-84), the Orioles (1988-91), and the Montreal Expos-Washington Nationals (2002-06).

Robinson was elected to the National Baseball Hall of Fame in his first year of eligibility in 1982. On February 2, 2015, Robinson was named by Baseball Commissioner Robert D. Manfred, Jr. as Senior Advisor and the new Honorary President of the American League.

Robinson passed away on February 7, 2019, at the age of 83. His widow, Barbara, lives in Los Angeles.

The greatest pitcher in Orioles history, Jim Palmer won 268 games in a 19-year career, all of it with Baltimore. He won three Cy Young Awards in a four-year span (1973, '75, '76) and his 2.86 ERA is fourth on the all-time list among pitchers with 3,000 or more innings pitched in the Play Index Era (1913-2017).

Palmer won 20 games in a season eight times, one of only six pitchers who pitched exclusively in the 20th century to accomplish the feat. He put that string together in a nine-year stretch, 1970-78, during which he went 176-97 with a 2.54 ERA.

In 1966, at age 20, he became the youngest pitcher ever to throw a World Series shutout, and in 1983 he became the only hurler to have won a World Series game in each of three decades. He was the winning pitcher in the Orioles' first four pennant-clinching games and was 8-3 in 17 postseason appearances. He was a six-time All-Star and was the American League's starting pitcher four times.

Palmer was elected to the National Baseball Hall of Fame on the first ballot in January 1990. He is in his 28th season as an analyst on Orioles televised games, and has also worked for ABC-TV and ESPN. On January 12, 2012, Palmer was awarded the Player Lifetime Achievement Award by the Professional Baseball Scouts Foundation.

Palmer and his wife, Susan, live in Palm Beach, Fla. and Corona del Mar, Calif. with their son, Spencer. His oldest daughter, Jamie, lives in Cotuit, Mass., with her husband, Paul. Palmer's younger daughter, Kelly, lives in Trophy Club, Texas, with her husband, David, and their twins, Maxine and Henri.

Eddie played 12½ of his 21 seasons with the Orioles and was elected to the National Baseball Hall of Fame in his first year of eligibility in 2003. He spent his first 12 years with the Orioles and rejoined the team in 1996, becoming the 15th player to reach the 500-home run plateau. Murray, Hank Aaron, Willie Mays, Rafael Palmeiro, Albert Pujols, and Alex Rodriguez are the only players with 500 homers and 3,000 hits.

A model of consistency, he drove in at least 75 runs in each of his first 20 Major League seasons, a feat unmatched. He has more RBI than any switch-hitter in modern-day history and ranks 10th all-time in RBI. Murray was named to eight All-Star teams, seven as an Oriole, and batted .300 or better seven times, including five times as an Oriole. He won the Orioles' "triple crown" five times, leading the club in average, homers, and RBI. He played at least 150 games in 16 seasons, the second most in history behind Pete Rose. He also appeared in 2,413 games as a first baseman, the most by a first baseman in Major League history.

Murray broke in as the American League Rookie of the Year in 1977. He was named Most Valuable Oriole seven times (twice sharing the award with Ripken).

He currently serves as a Special Advisor and Community Liaison for the Orioles.

Like Frank Robinson before him, Murray's Oriole number was retired when he was traded to the Los Angeles Dodgers. He also played for the New York Mets, Cleveland Indians, and Los Angeles Angels, and was an Orioles coach for four seasons, 1998-2001. He also served as the hitting coach for the Cleveland Indians and Los Angeles Dodgers. A three-time Gold Glove winner, he holds the Major League record for games played and career assists by a first baseman. Murray has two daughters, Jordan and Jessica, and lives in his hometown of Los Angeles.

ORIOLE PARK AT CAMDEN YARDS

BALTIMORE ORIOLES

THE BALLPARK THAT FOREVER CHANGED BASEBALL™

When Oriole Park at Camden Yards (OPACY) opened on April 6, 1992, a new era of Major League Baseball began. The park was brand new, but still old-fashioned. State-of-the-art, yet quaint. At less than a day old, it was already a classic.

OPACY inspired a generation of ballpark construction. No longer would communities across America build multipurpose stadiums devoid of character, surrounded by vast parking lots. Ballparks would now be created to nestle neatly into existing and historic neighborhoods and play key roles in the revitalization of urban America.

Designed by the architectural firm of Helmuth, Obata + Kassabaum (HOK), with direction and input from the Orioles and the State of Maryland, which owns and operates the facility through its agency, the Maryland Stadium Authority (MSA), the construction of the park was completed in essentially 33 months from the time razing previous structures on the 85-acre parcel began on June 28, 1989, in the area known as Camden Yards.

The one-time railroad center is 12 minutes west by foot from the city's Inner Harbor and only two blocks from the birthplace of baseball's most legendary slugger, George Herman "Babe" Ruth. Ruth's father operated Ruth's Cafe on the ground floor of the family residence located at Conway Street and Little Poca, now center field at Oriole Park.

Oriole Park is unique, traditional, and intimate in design. It blends with the urban context of downtown Baltimore while taking its image from baseball parks built in the early 20th century. Steel, rather than concrete trusses, an arched brick facade, a sun roof over the gentle slope of the Upper Deck, an asymmetrical playing field, and natural grass turf are just some of the features that tie it to those magnificent big league ballparks built in the early 1900s. Ebbets Field (Brooklyn), Shibe Park (Philadelphia), Fenway Park (Boston), Crosley Field (Cincinnati), Forbes Field (Pittsburgh), Wrigley Field (Chicago), and The Polo Grounds (New York) were among the ballparks that served as powerful influences in the design of Oriole Park.

Since it ushered in a new era of ballpark design, OPACY has welcomed more than 72 million fans including individuals from all 50 states and more than 100 countries. The city of Baltimore and the entire state of Maryland have derived significant economic impact totaling in the billions of dollars from the more than 72 million fans who have attended Orioles games over the last 29 seasons, as well as from the millions more who have participated in festivals, concerts, meetings, tours, and community events that have been held at the ballpark.

OPACY captured the nation's attention from day one and in the seasons that followed has served as the standard by which all new ballparks are measured. Citizens of Baltimore and throughout Maryland, as well as Orioles fans everywhere, should take great pride in the fact that their team makes its home in The Ballpark That Forever Changed Baseball™.

- In a continuing effort to create the most family-friendly atmosphere in sports, in August of 2019, the Orioles extended protective netting at OPACY down each foul line to near each foul pole. Protective netting was also extended to near the foul poles at Ed Smith Stadium prior to the start of 2020 Spring Training.
- In 2018, after a multi-year effort of research and enhancements, the U.S. Green Building Council awarded OPACY with Leadership in Energy and Environmental Design (LEED) Gold Certification for an existing building. The accompanying B&O Warehouse was also awarded with LEED Silver.
- Located beyond right field, the B&O Warehouse is 439 feet from home plate and houses office space for the Orioles as well as banquet facilities and the ballpark's central kitchen. Built between 1898 and 1905, the Warehouse is the longest building on the East Coast at 1,016 feet, and is only 51 feet wide.
- The ballpark and Warehouse are separated by a 60-foot wide promenade, an extension of Eutaw Street. Open daily, Eutaw Street is home to various plaques and displays, and allows access to The Orioles Official Team Store.
- Both the left and right field foul poles are the original poles used while the Orioles played at Memorial Stadium.
- The natural surface of the warning track, installed in 2013 to replace the original rubberized warning track from 1992, is composed of crushed stone, matching the color of the brick that appears throughout the ballpark and on the Warehouse.
- Every aisle seat in the park includes a reproduction of the 125-year-old logo used by the Baltimore Orioles of the 1890s, a National League team that won consecutive pennants from 1894-96.

BALLPARK TOURS

Oriole Park at Camden Yards tours continue to be a popular attraction for thousands of visitors to Baltimore. In 2019, nearly 16,000 people toured the ballpark facility. Since 1992, more than one million fans have taken a tour of Oriole Park. Fans touring the facility visit the Legends Park, Suite Level, media levels, and dugout. Private tours, reserved in advance, are available year-round. Public tours are available between March and November. For tickets and schedule information, visit Orioles.com or call 410-547-6234 or 888-848-BIRD (2473).

DISPLAYS THROUGHOUT ORIOLE PARK

Orioles Hall of Fame: Located at the north end of the Warehouse on the wall at the base of the scoreboard, plaques honor the members inducted annually and are similar in appearance to those enshrined in Cooperstown, N.Y. at the National Baseball Hall of Fame. They feature the Oriole Hall of Famer's likeness and a brief description of their accomplishments.

Orioles Retired Numbers: Four-foot monuments, located at the north end of the Warehouse, honor the uniform numbers worn by Earl Weaver (4), Brooks Robinson (5), Cal Ripken, Jr. (8), Frank Robinson (20), Jim Palmer (22), and Eddie Murray (33).

Orioles Legends Park: In celebration of the 20th anniversary of OPACY in 2012, the Orioles unveiled larger than life bronze sculptures of the six Orioles who have their numbers retired and are National Baseball Hall of Fame members. The sculptures, created by renowned Maryland sculptor Antonio Tobias "Toby" Mendez, are located in Orioles Legends Park.

Mid-Atlantic Scouts Hall of Fame: A tribute to baseball scouts over the years, plaques are mounted on a wall on Eutaw Street.

Maryland State Athletic Hall of Fame: The names of Marylanders who left their mark in athletic endeavors and have been inducted into the state's Athletic Hall of Fame are mounted on a wall on Eutaw Street.

Cal Ripken, Jr. Seat: To honor Ripken's 278th career homer, hit on July 15, 1993, which surpassed Ernie Banks' MLB record for home runs by a shortstop, the Orioles marked the spot where the ball landed (Section 86, Row 4, Seat 10) with an orange seat.

Eddie Murray Seat: To honor Murray's 500th career home run, hit on September 6, 1996, off Detroit's Felipe Lira, the Orioles installed an orange seat in the right field bleachers where the ball landed (Section 96, Row 7, Seat 23).

Eutaw Street Home Runs: Brass baseball plates are embedded into the Eutaw Street sidewalk marking the locations where home runs cleared the right field gate. These plates contain the home run hitter's name, team logo, distance the ball traveled, and date the home run was hit.

Birdland Murals: In partnership with PNC Bank, the Orioles selected local female artists to showcase the city's arts community through the creation of larger than life murals throughout Oriole Park. Initiated in 2019, the female-led projects are part of the Orioles' yearlong celebration of women's equality and girls' empowerment in honor of the 100th anniversary of the ratification of the 19th Amendment in August of 2020.

Standing Together Exhibit: The Orioles are host to the National Woman's Party (NWP) exhibit "Standing Together: Women's Ongoing Fight for Equality," the Maryland stop on the organization's national tour. The exhibit, which will be in place throughout the 2021 season is located on the lower concourse directly behind home plate.

Plaques at Oriole Park: In ceremonies prior to Cal Ripken, Jr.'s final game on October 6, 2001, the Orioles unveiled a plaque in the first base dugout dedicated to Cal Ripken, Sr. It is inscribed: "Cal Ripken, Sr. Dedicated to a lifelong Oriole of thirty-six years, and one of the game's greatest teachers. Coach, manager, and devoted mentor to countless young Orioles, "Senior" dedicated his life to baseball and passed on his respect of the game to everyone he coached. He preached "perfect practice, makes perfect" and stressed the importance of being prepared, learning the "right way" and playing to the best of one's ability every inning of every game. We will always remember his devotion to the Orioles, his love of the game, and his many lessons..."

In honor of Earl Weaver's induction into the National Baseball Hall of Fame, a silver "4" and plaque identifying Weaver's years as manager was added to the Orioles' dugout wall in July 1996, near where the manager traditionally stands.

Relief pitcher Jesse Orosco made his 1,072nd career appearance on August 17, 1999, passing Dennis Eckersley for the Major League record for most games pitched. In honor of his accomplishment, the Orioles installed a plaque with Orosco's uniform number, 47, above the bench in the bullpen.

Plaques in the Oriole Park press box have been erected honoring the late Rex Barney, Orioles public address announcer for more than 25 years, and the late Monica Pence Barlow, the Orioles' public relations director and a member of the organization for 14 years. Additionally, a plaque in the first base camera well honors longtime team photographer Jerry Wachter.

A plaque in the umpires' tunnel is dedicated to the memory of Ernie Tyler, who for 48 years served as the Umpires' Attendant for the Orioles. Tyler, who's sons Fred and Jim still work for the Orioles, dedicated his life to his job, at one time working 3,819 consecutive games.

ATTENDANCE INFORMATION

ATTENDANCE MILESTONES: The Orioles celebrated two attendance milestones in 2008. The first came on August 19, 2008, as the O's welcomed Kevin Gracie, a law school student from Ellicott City, Md., as their designated 50 millionth fan to attend a game at Oriole Park at Camden Yards. Opened in 1992, Oriole Park was the quickest ballpark to achieve the 50-million fan milestone in the history of baseball, a record that stood until the San Francisco Giants broke the mark at AT&T Park during the 2015 season. In its first 17 seasons, Oriole Park at Camden Yards hosted the third-most fans in baseball, trailing only Dodger Stadium and Yankee Stadium.

Less than a week later, on August 23, 2008, the 100 millionth fan in franchise history (since 1954) entered the gates at Oriole Park at Camden Yards. Velma Greene, a middle school teacher from Harpers Ferry, W. Va., was designated as the milestone fan. In 66 seasons and 4,929 regular season dates between Memorial Stadium and Camden Yards, 122,049,654 fans have watched the Orioles play in Baltimore.

The Orioles have drawn a total of 72,204,066 fans in 2,213 dates in 28 seasons at Oriole Park, surpassing the total attendance from 1954 through 1991 at Memorial Stadium. In 38 seasons at the old ballpark on 33rd Street, the club drew 49,845,588 in 2,716 dates, an average of 18,353 fans per game. The Birds have averaged 32,627 fans per game in 2,213 dates at Oriole Park.

2020: In order to prioritize the health and safety of the team, staff, and fans during the global COVID-19 pandemic, fans were not permitted at Oriole Park during the 2020 season.

LARGEST 3-DATE CROWD: The August 10-12, 2007, series against the Boston Red Sox shattered the attendance record for a three-date series at Oriole Park at Camden Yards by more than 2,000 fans. A total of 146,786 fans attended the three games, topping the previous mark of 144,784 set August 21-23, 1998, vs. Cleveland.

"QUICKEST TO" MILESTONES

3 million—66 home dates ('93, '97 & '98)

2 million—43 home dates ('94)

1 million—22 home dates ('94)

AMONG THE MAJOR LEAGUE LEADERS: The Orioles had never led the AL in total or average attendance until 1995, then did so for four consecutive years. The team has drawn three million or more fans in nine of the 26 non-strike shortened seasons at Oriole Park at Camden Yards.

SMALLEST CROWDS: The smallest crowd for a game at Oriole Park at Camden Yards was 6,585 on April 8, 2019, against the Oakland Athletics. The smallest crowd ever for an Orioles home game was on August 17, 1972, when only 655 fans attended an afternoon make-up game against the Chicago White Sox at Memorial Stadium.

ZERO FANS: Fans were not permitted at any regular season Major League Baseball game during the 2020 season due to the COVID-19 pandemic. Prior to the 2020 season, on April 29, 2015, the Orioles played a game against the Chicago White Sox at Oriole Park, which was closed to the public. The game was not considered in tallying the total season attendance and the date was not included in the average per game attendance.

CREDENTIALS: All media credential requests must be submitted through Major League Baseball's online credentialing system. Credentials will only be issued to legitimate news agencies and are non-transferable. All requests for single-game credentials must be submitted at least 24 hours in advance. Credentials must be worn and visible at all times. Credentialed media must adhere to the policies below. Failure to comply may lead to credentials being revoked and/or denial for future media access.

MEDIA ENTRANCE: Media must enter the ballpark via Home Plate Plaza, which is located on the southwestern side of Oriole Park between Gates D and E. Home Plate Plaza opens 4.5 hours before first pitch. Credential pick-up is located at Window 6 of Home Plate Will Call. Credentials will only be released on an individual-basis and to those with a government-issued photo ID. All bags and equipment are subject to search upon entry and at other points as deemed necessary.

PARKING: Media parking is limited and only available by advanced request, located in Lots A and B/C off of Lee Street. Requests will be filled on a first-come, first-served basis and as space permits. Please include parking requests in the comments section of daily credential applications.

NO AUTOGRAPHS: Media are forbidden from seeking autographs at any time. Any media member found in violation of this rule will have their credential revoked.

PRESS BOX: The main press box is located on the Lower Press Level (2nd floor). Broadcasts booths are located on the Upper Press Level (3rd floor) and are reserved for rightsholders or other entities as assigned by the Orioles PR department. Media are expected to follow the prioritized seating positions located on seating charts throughout the press box. Television outlets and still photographers may not film or shoot from the press box without prior permission from the Orioles PR department.

FIELD ACCESS: The only media access point to and from the field is through the Umpires Tunnel behind home plate, located on the Service Level between clubhouses. The field is open to media from the time Home Plate Plaza opens until 45 minutes before game time, with the exception of special first pitch ceremonies that have been announced as open to media. Media must remain on the warning track and between the two dugouts at all times, and are not allowed on the playing field under any circumstance.

CLUBHOUSE ACCESS: Only media with MLB, BBWAA, or properly marked, team-issued credentials have access to the clubhouses. Video cameras are permitted in the Orioles clubhouse prior to and after the game, but are restricted to tight interview shots. Tripods and still photography are not permitted without prior permission from the Orioles PR department. The Orioles clubhouse will open each day for media access prior to batting practice and again within 10 minutes after the final out. Clubhouse times can be found in the pregame schedule on page 239 and updates will be announced via Twitter @OriolesPR. Media are only permitted within the locker room area of the clubhouse. The trainers' area, players' lounge, batting cages, kitchen, showers, and access hallways are off-limits to media at all times.

CELL PHONES: Cell phones may only be used to record audio while in the clubhouse. The use of cell phones to disseminate information via text, email, or any form of social media will result in the credential being revoked and ejection from the ballpark. Cell phones may not be used to capture pictures or video in the clubhouse at any time. Violators will lose clubhouse privileges.

INTERVIEWS: Phone, in-studio, or sit-down interviews must be arranged through the Orioles PR department. Media are not to contact players directly and may not conduct interviews on the field during stretch or batting practice without prior permission from the Orioles PR department. Failure to comply may lead to credentials being revoked.

MANAGER AVAILABILITY: Manager Brandon Hyde will meet with media in the Auxiliary Clubhouse prior to each game and again approximately 10 minutes following the end of the game. Any changes to the manager's media availability will be announced on Twitter via @OriolesPR.

PRESS DINING: Media with credentials issued by the Orioles, MLB, or BBWAA are invited to eat in the Press Dining Room on the Upper Press Level for a charge of $12 per person. Food service will begin two hours before first pitch and continue through the first hour of the game, unless otherwise announced. Due to space limitations, media are not permitted in the dining area unless they have purchased a meal. Guests are not permitted in the dining area without prior approval from the Orioles PR department. Complimentary light refreshments are provided in the press box on the Lower Press Level.

PHOTOGRAPHERS: Photographers are not permitted on the field at any time during the game. Photo wells are located at each end of the home and visiting dugouts, and camera positions are assigned by the Orioles photography department. Photographers may work from the stands as long as they are not obstructing the view of fans, but they are not permitted in the first four rows behind home plate. Additionally, photographers are able to utilize the overhangs located on the first and third base sides on the Club Level. A work room for photographers is located adjacent to the press box on Lower Press Level. Once the game has started, photographers may use the entrances/exits outside of the first and third base photo wells. No still photographs are permitted in either clubhouse without permission of the Public Relations Department of each team.

TELEVISION

MASN, the Mid-Atlantic Sports Network, has been the exclusive television home for all Baltimore Orioles games since 2007. An independent regional sports network, MASN is owned by the Orioles and Washington Nationals, and provides unmatched access to the action on the field and inside the game.

Every Orioles game is televised in high-definition on one of the network's two channels, MASN and MASN2, with exception to nationally televised games. MASN and MASN2 airs throughout an exclusive territory that covers a seven-state region from Harrisburg, Pa. to Charlotte, N.C. All of MASN's cable, satellite, and fiber-optic distributors carry MASN and MASN2 on a consistent channel throughout the season. (Visit MASNsports.com for local listings.)

Fans can follow MASN via @masnOrioles on Twitter, on Facebook at facebook.com/masnorioles, and via @masnOrioles on Instagram. Roch Kubatko covers the team year-round on MASNsports.com and can be followed on Twitter at @masnRoch.

RADIO

Entercom's 105.7 The Fan serves as the flagship station of the seven-state, 40-station Orioles Radio Network. Fans can hear extensive coverage of all regular season games, including pre- and postgame shows, as well as select Spring Training contests throughout the Orioles Radio Network.

The Orioles' radio rights returned to 105.7 The Fan in 2015, which served as the broadcast home for the Orioles from 2007-10. Currently, 105.7 The Fan is one of the highest-rated sports talk radio stations in the United States.

In 2010, the Orioles entered a multi-year partnership with WSBA Radio to serve as their affiliate in York, Pa. In addition, members of the military stationed overseas have the opportunity to listen to Orioles games on the American Forces Radio Network.

"SARASOTA'S CROWN JEWEL"

The 2021 season marks the Orioles 11th year of holding Major League Spring Training operations at Ed Smith Stadium. "Sarasota's Crown Jewel" was fully renovated in 2011, complete with four practice fields, one practice half-field, a clubhouse, indoor batting cages, pitching mounds, stadium field lights, an electronic scoreboard, concession facilities, locker rooms for umpires, tournament office hub, press box, expansive concourse areas, and ample parking. Its modern amenities, mixed with historical Florida architecture, have helped Ed Smith Stadium truly become "Birdland South."

ORIOLES IN SARASOTA FAST FACTS

- According to a recent independent analysis commissioned by Sarasota County, the Orioles' economic impact in the state of Florida has topped more than $511 million since 2015.
- Since moving year-round operations to Sarasota in 2010, the Orioles have donated more than $3.5 million in cash and in-kind contributions to the community.
- In a 2018 study conducted for USA TODAY, ReviewTrackers, a data-mining firm in Chicago, found Ed Smith Stadium as the top venue among Major League Baseball Spring Training sites in both Florida and Arizona, tracking how fans felt about the facility itself, food and drink offerings, and the overall experience for fans and families.
